Training

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU SELECT A COURSE TO TRAIN IN
What you see when you click on a course:

- When you click on a course, you will be brought to this page
- Click on “OUTLINE” to see list of domains covered in training
- Click on “VIEW” to start training
- You may also click on the mail icon to email the instructor of the course
What you see when you click on “OUTLINE”:

- You can select any domain or item to skip ahead to that domain or item
  - Most people use this feature when their training was interrupted and they would like to pick up where they left off
When you click on “VIEW”:

- Please take the time to read the: “How to Use This Site” page as it contains important information about training.
- You can click “NEXT” to go through the training in order OR select the specific section in the menu on the left to skip ahead.
What happens when you click on “INTRODUCTION”:

- The introduction chapter in the menu on the left contains introductory materials such as:
  - Acknowledgements
  - Introduction to the CANS
  - Printable materials
- The screen on the right shows what you will see if you click on “printable materials”
  - Click on the document name to download the materials
  - Many people like to print out the materials to have a hard copy during the final exam
This chapter provides details about the Six Key Principles.

Each Principle contains written principle and a video explaining the principle.

Please click on “VIDEO” to watch the video of Dr. John Lyons.
What happens when you click on “ACTION LEVELS”

- This chapter contains the general action level descriptions
- Please keep these descriptions, along with the item-specific descriptions (explored next) in mind when completing the final exam
What each item looks like in training:

- This is what each item looks like
- Each item in training contains: Text, a video, and three multiple choice quizzes
- At the bottom of every page, you can post a comment if you have a question, suggestion, or compliment
What is on the TEXT portion of the item:

- The TEXT portion of the item contains:
  - The action level definition
    - This will describe how to rate the item in detail
    - When rating items, please take the items specific action level definition along with the general action level definitions into account
What is on the VIDEO portion of the item:

- Click on the play arrow to watch the video of Dr. John Lyons explaining the item.
What is on the MULTIPLE CHOICE portion of the item:

- There are three quizzes for each item
- This will test your knowledge for the individual item to see if you are ready to move onto the next item
What you see when you click on PRACTICE TEST:

- Once you have gone through all of the training, you can test your knowledge by doing a few practice tests.
- This page will display the most recent score you received on each test.
- Click on the test you’d like to take to begin.
What happens once you click on a practice test:

- You have 2 hours of continuous testing time to complete the test
  - You will be given a warning of when you must complete the test by, if you are ready, you may click YES to confirm
What you will see when you confirm that you are taking a test:

- Please note on this page:
  - At the top: timer and section completion
  - On the left: vignette assumption and vignette (read BOTH carefully)
  - On the right: Action level definitions and items to rate
    - Please ensure each item is rated before clicking “NEXT” to move onto the next section of the test
What you see once you have completed a practice test:

- You have a few options on this page:
  - You can export the test to PDF
  - You can click on “VIEW EXPLANATIONS to see the recommended scores versus what your scored for feedback (recommended)
  - You can return to the training course
If you click on VIEW EXPLANATIONS:

- You can click “SHOW” to see the specific ratings
- Ratings off by:
  - 1 mark appear in blue
  - 2 or 3 marks appear in red
    - These are the ones that will affect your reliability
  - Correct ratings appear in green
When you click on “FINAL EXAM”

- When you are ready to become certified, please click on “FINAL EXAM” on the menu on the left hand side
- Things to know:
  - This page will show you the last 5 test (practice and final) that you have taken so you can judge if you are ready to proceed
What you will see once you click START FINAL EXAM:

- This is the confirmation page (like the practice tests) for the final exam
- Each jurisdiction gives you a certain number of attempts to pass, this page will let you know how many attempts you have left
- If you are unsuccessful on all of your attempts, you will get a notification of what your next steps are
  - For most jurisdictions, it is to wait 24 hours for feedback from the site and then you may try again
What you will see when you take a final exam:

- The final exam page is the same as the practice test page
- Here is a refresher of what you will see
You have passed! You are now certified:

- When you obtain sufficient reliability to obtain certification, this is what you will see
- You can print your certificate by clicking “DOWNLOAD CERTIFICATE”
Tips for taking the exam:

- It is a good idea to print off the manual before taking the exam so that you can follow along during the exam.
- If you find it difficult to read the text of the test, please copy and paste it into a word file and adjust the font to best suit you. You can then print the word file so that you can highlight and circle important information on the vignette while taking the exam.
