Child and Youth Connection

This program provides and early intervention services to children and transitional age youth involved in the foster care and juvenile justice systems. This program is a collaborative between the Department of Behavioral Health (DBH), the Juvenile Public Defender's Office, Children's Network, Child and Family Services (CFS) and local contract providers. Services include mental health screenings, drug assessment therapeutic interventions, and consultations regarding the mental health needs of minors for appointment of appropriate experts to facilitate changes in plan hearings or change of placements. Additionally, a Mentoring Resource Network is maintained where various agencies and stakeholders meet to conduct needs assessments and create mentoring opportunities for system involved youth.

The CYC includes a special component intended to improve social, developmental, cognitive, emotional, and behavioral functioning of children. This component consists of Screening, Assessment, Referral and Treatment (SART) and Early Identification and Intervention Services (EIS). SART is collaboration between DBH, CFS, Department of Public Health, First S, and Children's Network, intended to identify children at risk of developmental and mental health problems. SART provides comprehensive treatment services, including assessment, individual therapy, family therapy, rehabilitative services and intensive care coordination. EIS provides services exclusively to children under the age of six who are not displaying appropriate interactions and attachment. Services include comprehensive treatment services, including assessment, individual therapy, family therapy, rehabilitative services and intensive care coordination.

The Healthy Homes program is a collaboration between the Department of Behavioral Health and the Department of Children Services to ensure early identification of mental health needs of children in foster care. The program targets the needs of children and their care providers to stabilize placements, maximize their functioning in the family, school and community settings, reduce higher levels of care and maintain children in the least restrictive environment.

The Healthy Homes program serves as a resource and support to care providers.

The JCBHS program expands the review process of the psychotropic medication referral (Jv220) for juvenile dependents and wards of the San Bernardino County.
