8) Foster Youth Focus Group
Kristin Hinds, Child Welfare Services Manager and Myriam Cosey, Independent Living Program Supervisor, introduced Jayshanai Walker, a current Peer and Family Assistant (PFA). A discussion ensued about the Foster Youth system and the challenges these individuals face with obtaining employment. The PFA will reach out to the youth and discuss their goals for employment, assist with the completion of employment applications and forward those to the Workforce Development Department. Ms. Walker discussed some of the barriers they also encounter, such as transportation to and from the centers and/or employers, not having access to internet at their homes and the challenge of these foster youth moving from one home to another, which creates difficulties to maintain consistent support.

Further discussions occurred about how to improve communications between Child and Family Services, Workforce Development and the Providers, to ensure the optimum experience and training opportunities for these Foster Youth. A follow up meeting with Child and Family Services was requested by the Chair in 6 months, to determine if there was improvement in communications between all parties.

9) GenerationGo! Career Pathways Toolkits
Mariann Johnson provided an overview of the documents in the GenerationGo! toolkits, which include brochures for employers explaining the program, worksite agreements, a manual from San Bernardino College, documents from Workforce Development that the students sign and additional sections with documents for school personnel and the interns. The toolkit will ultimately be put on a thumb drive for efficient storage and easy portability.

ADJOURNMENT
Chair called for a motion to adjourn. Dale Marsden motioned and Lowell King seconded the motion. None opposed; motion carried.
