Inland Fair Housing and Mediation Board celebrates the 50th Anniversary of the Federal Fair Housing Act of 1968. We are excited as we host our 2nd Annual Fair Housing Conference in recognition and celebration of this historic civil rights legislation that has transformed the lives of so many individuals and communities across our great nation.

Our 2018 Fair Housing Conference is designed to gather local community governments, non-profit organizations, financial institutions, housing developers, policymakers, real estate professionals and housing providers for a day of enrichment, recognition, continuing education, and exposure to current fair housing trends. Join us to learn how to use housing as a platform to:

- Create and sustain inclusive communities built on racial, ethnic, and socioeconomic diversity
- Partner with local community organizations and municipalities to effectively "Affirmatively Further Fair Housing"
- Identify and explore the objectives of the Fair Housing Act of 1968: past, present, and future

The conference ticket price includes breakfast, lunch, parking, conference materials and admittance per person.
