They are also hosting “homeless court” sessions at the Carnegie Library on the last Friday of every month. • Lorena raised ongoing concerns regarding resources to address housing and homeless challenges for community college students. She suggested that the CoC make college students a priority population. • Alice expressed concerns about an increase of homeless students, veterans, seniors, and chronic. She suggested that we explore utilizing vacant county properties as a resource for shelter and housing. • Mariposa Community Counseling hosts a job group every other Friday at 9:00am.
PRESENTATION
Current Trends in Housing and Homeless Challenges Faced by People Experiencing Domestic Violence and Abuse	Walter Solorzano, House of Ruth, Inc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • House of Ruth has been providing life-saving domestic violence services for residents of eastern Los Angeles and western San Bernardino counties since 1977. Participation in House of Ruth programming is open to all battered women, men, and their children. All of House of Ruth’s programs are free of charge. • House of Ruth recently received grant funding to conduct a Rapid Re-housing Pilot Project for DV survivor households. The pilot project includes 90 days of bridge housing and up to 6 months of rental assistance based on a Housing First approach and a Progressive Engagement model. • The program is available to single individuals and single parents with children under 17 who are homeless or at risk to homelessness and fleeing domestic violence. Participant must have a source of income or an ability to get one and “the mentality to become self-sufficient and independent in a short-period of time.” • House of Ruth’s Rapid Re-housing services include housing search and placement, housing stabilization case management, and rental financial assistance. Financial assistance include security deposit and first month’s rent paid in full followed by decreasing rental subsidies for up to 6 months. The program can also pay for up to 3 month of rental arrears. They also provide help with essential furnishings such as refrigerators and bedroom sets. • Supportive services include in-home visits, employment development, crisis intervention, domestic violence counseling, financial education, life skills education, landlord tenant right and responsibilities, transportation, and other community service connections. Follow-up services are provided for up to 6 month after financial assistance ends. • For more information, contact House of Ruth at 909/623-4364 (main office) or Walter Solorzano at 909/295-1185.
