WORK DEMANDS

Service as a Grand Juror requires essential physical and mental functions to perform daily duties pursuant to Penal Code §893. The physical and mental demands described here are representative of those that must be met by Grand Jurors to successfully perform the essential functions of this class. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Physical Demands

While performing the duties of this job, the Grand Juror is regularly required to sit, walk and stand; talk and hear; use hands to finger, handle, feel or operate objects, tools or controls; reach with hands and arms; perform repetitive movements of hands or wrists. The employee is frequently required to lift items weighing up to ten (10) pounds unaided. Specific vision abilities required for this job include close vision and the ability to adjust focus.

Mental Demands

While performing the duties of this job, the Grand Juror uses written and oral communication skills; reads and interprets data, information and documents; analyzes and solves problems; uses math and mathematical reasoning; observes and interprets people and situations; learns and applies new information and skills; performs highly detailed work; deals with changing deadlines, constant interruptions and multiple concurrent tasks; handles multiple competing demands while changing priority and focus on very short notice; interacts with others encountered in the course of work, including frequent contact with various agencies.

Work Environment

The employee works in an office environment where the noise level is usually quiet and may visit sites during the course of an investigation.

PLEASE READ AND SIGN THE STATEMENT BELOW

I understand that my name may be placed in nomination to be considered for membership on the San Bernardino County Civil Grand Jury.

I am further aware that as compensation for my duties as a Grand Juror, I will be paid per diem as specified on the Become a Grand Juror section of the Grand Jury home page for each day of service and roundtrip car mileage at the current rate. Parking is provided. I am aware that such service may require three to five full days per week over a one-year period beginning January 1st. Reasonable absences are permitted.

I further understand that I will be required to be present for the impanelment proceeding in December, and for the organization of the Civil Grand Jury during the entire month of January. If I am unable to be present at the impanelment proceeding and for the balance of January, I understand that I may be replaced by an alternate Grand Juror.

I hereby state that I am capable of carrying out my duties as a member of the Civil Grand Jury and that I have no plans for extended vacation, travel, or business (more than 12 business days) which would prevent me from serving the required amount of time.

I will not change residence outside the County of San Bernardino during my term as a Grand Juror.

I recognize that I have a duty to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States and of California, and that my attendance and participation in good faith, in appropriate business attire, will be expected and may be required by the Foreperson of the Civil Grand Jury.

I, therefore, request my name be placed on the eligible list as a candidate for the Civil Grand Jury of San Bernardino County.
