Terms and Conditions of a Sheriff's Sale

1. If you are the winning bidder, you must be prepared to pay in cash, certified check, or cashier's check. Personal checks, company checks, traveler's checks, or money orders are not acceptable (CCP 701.590(a)).
2. If you pay by certified check or cashier's check, the check must be payable to "Sheriff's Court Services." You may not endorse a check payable to you or anyone else over to the Sheriff's Department.
3. The winning bidder must be prepared to pay the full amount at the time of sale when:
 - a) The bid amount on real property is $5,000.00 or less, or,
 - b) The bid amount on personal property is $2,500.00 or less.
4. If the winning bid for an interest in the real property exceeds $5,000.00, the bidder shall deposit at least $5,000.00 or 10% of the bid, whichever is greater; and within 10 days after the date of sale, pay the balance plus interest on the balance and costs accruing related to the sale.

If the winning bid for an item, group, or a lot of personal property sold exceeds $2,500.00, the winning bidder shall deposit at least $2,500.00 or 10% of the bid, whichever is greater; and within 10 days after the date of the sale, pay the balance plus interest on the balance and costs accruing related to the sale. The winning bidder is also responsible for transfer taxes and fees.

The winning bidder is not entitled to possession of the property until the bid, plus costs and interest, have been paid.

If the winning bidder does not pay the bid amount as prescribed above, they will forfeit their deposit (CCP 701.590, 701.600).

5. The judgment creditor may bid against all or part of the judgment. Unpaid levying costs, preferred labor claims, exempt proceeds, and any other claims required to be satisfied shall be paid in cash or by certified check or cashier's check (CCP 701.590).
6. If a minimum is required and not received, provisions of CCP 701.620 will apply.
7. Prospective bidders should refer to CCP 701.600(c) regarding the liability of defaulting bidders.
8. Any person may bid on and purchase property at a Sheriff's Sale except employees of the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department and their immediate families.
9. All bidders shall say how they intend to pay for the property and show evidence of their ability to pay. We do this for the benefit of all bidders.
10. The winning bidder shall be prepared to do business immediately. The auctioneer will not wait while you go to the bank for money.

Sales Subject to the Right of Redemption

The Right of Redemption applies only to real property. When an interest in real property is sold subject to the Right of Redemption, it means that the debtor, whose interest in the property is being sold, will have a certain amount of time to redeem or buy back their property interest. The purchaser will be issued a Certificate of Sale, and a duplicated copy of the certificate will be recorded (CCP 729.040). This certificate does not constitute a transfer of title but grants the purchaser specific rights (CCP 729.090).

The redemption period will depend on the selling price as follows (CCP 709.030):

- A. 3 months after the sale date if the sale proceeds are sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs.
- B. 1 year after the sale date if the sale proceeds are not sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs.

The redemption price is the total of the following:

- a) The purchase price at the time of the sale.
- b) The amount of any assessments or taxes and reasonable amounts for fire insurance, upkeep, and repair or improvements on the property.
- c) Any amount paid by the purchaser on a prior obligation secured by the property to the extent that the payment was necessary to protect the purchaser's interest.
- d) Interest on the amounts described above from the time such amounts were paid and until the deposit date.
- e) If the purchaser has any liens subordinate to the lien under which the property was sold, the amount of the purchaser's lien, plus interest from the sale date to the deposit date.

Rents and profits from the property paid to the purchaser or the value of the property's use and occupation to the purchaser may be offset against the amounts described above (CCP 729.060).

Disputes related to the right to redeem the property shall be resolved in court. The petitioner must petition the court before the redemption period expires. The petitioner must supply our office with the written notice of the hearing (CCP 729.070).

Refer to sections within CCP 729.010 for more information concerning the redemption process.

NOTICE TO PERSON SERVED

WRIT OF EXECUTION OR SALE. Your rights and duties are indicated on the accompanying Notice of Levy (form EJ-150).

WRIT OF POSSESSION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY. If the levying officer is not able to take custody of the property, the levying officer will demand that you turn over the property. If custody is not obtained following demand, the judgment may be enforced as a money judgment for the value of the property specified in the judgment or in a supplemental order.

WRIT OF POSSESSION OF REAL PROPERTY. If the premises are not vacated within five days after the date of service on the occupant or, if service is by posting, within five days after service on you, the levying officer will remove the occupants from the real property and place the judgment creditor in possession of the property. Except for a mobile home, personal property remaining on the premises will be sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with CCP 1174 unless you or the owner of the property pays the judgment creditor the reasonable cost of storage and takes possession of the personal property not later than 15 days after the time the judgment creditor takes possession of the premises.

EXCEPTION IF RENTAL HOUSING UNIT WAS FORECLOSED. If the residential property that you are renting was sold in a foreclosure, you have additional time before you must vacate the premises. If you have a lease for a fixed term, such as for a year, you may remain in the property until the term is up. If you have a periodic lease or tenancy, such as from month-to-month, you may remain in the property for 90 days after receiving a notice to quit. A blank form Claim of Right to Possession and Notice of Hearing (form CP10) accompanies this writ. You may claim your right to remain on the property by filling it out and giving it to the sheriff or levying officer.

EXCEPTION IF YOU WERE NOT SERVED WITH A FORM CALLED PREJUDGMENT CLAIM OF RIGHT TO POSSESSION. If you were not named in the judgment for possession and you occupied the premises on the date on which the unlawful detainer case was filed, you may object to the enforcement of the judgment against you. You must complete the form Claim of Right to Possession and Notice of Hearing (form CP10) and give it to the sheriff or levying officer. A blank form accompanies this writ. You have this right whether or not the property you are renting was sold in a foreclosure.
