

San Bernardino County SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT

Informant Development and Maintenance

July 7th, 2026
0800 to 1630 hours

Course Description

Today, the informant is one of the most effective crime-fighting tools in state, local, and federal law enforcement. The use of informants is necessary to law enforcement if the overall objectives are to be met. Therefore, definite guidelines must be established for the use and control of informants. This course will provide you with the tools and knowledge needed to develop, maintain, and document informants from the patrol assignment to Gang and Major Narcotic Investigations.

Learning Topics

- Develop and manage confidential informant
- Safe operations with a confidential informant
