Sales Subject to the Right of Redemption

The Right of Redemption applies only to real property. When an interest in real property is sold subject to the Right of Redemption, it means that the debtor, whose interest in the property is being sold, will have a certain amount of time to redeem or buy back their property interest. The purchaser will be issued a Certificate of Sale, and a duplicated copy of the certificate will be recorded (CCP 729.040). This certificate does not constitute a transfer of title but grants the purchaser specific rights (CCP 729.090).

The redemption period will depend on the selling price as follows (CCP 709.030):

- A. 3 months after the sale date if the sale proceeds are sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs.
- B. 1 year after the sale date if the sale proceeds are not sufficient to satisfy the secured indebtedness with interest and costs.

The redemption price is the total of the following:

- a) The purchase price at the time of the sale.
- b) The amount of any assessments or taxes and reasonable amounts for fire insurance, upkeep, and repair or improvements on the property.
- c) Any amount paid by the purchaser on a prior obligation secured by the property to the extent that the payment was necessary to protect the purchaser's interest.
- d) Interest on the amounts described above from the time such amounts were paid and until the deposit date.
- e) If the purchaser has any liens subordinate to the lien under which the property was sold, the amount of the purchaser's lien, plus interest from the sale date to the deposit date.

Rents and profits from the property paid to the purchaser or the value of the property's use and occupation to the purchaser may be offset against the amounts described above (CCP 729.060).

Disputes related to the right to redeem the property shall be resolved in court. The petitioner must petition the court before the redemption period expires. The petitioner must supply our office with the written notice of the hearing (CCP 729.070).

Refer to sections within CCP 729.010 for more information concerning the redemption process.
