BRIEFING (CONTINUED):

The following is a summary of the briefing:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1343 hours, Victorville Station received a 9-1-1 call from the AM/PM, at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville. The reporting party, later identified by investigators as [redacted], said a male subject, later identified by investigators as Jorge Cardenas, threatened [redacted] with a gun. Cardenas [redacted] was later identified by investigators as [redacted] said [redacted] asked her to call the police for her because she was scared. According to [redacted], Cardenas was seated in a silver Nissan Altima in the parking lot of the AM/PM, near the front entrance.

At approximately 1346 hours, Sergeant Shane Andersen was dispatched to the call. At approximately 1348 hours, Andersen arrived and parked behind Cardenas' silver Nissan Altima, bearing California license plate [redacted]. Andersen exited his patrol vehicle and approached Cardenas' Altima. Cardenas exited his Altima and walked toward the front door of AM/PM. Andersen ordered Cardenas to stop, but Cardenas refused. As Andersen attempted to detain Cardenas, Cardenas removed a handgun from his waistband, pointed it at Andersen, and a lethal force encounter occurred. Andersen and Cardenas both sustained multiple gunshot wounds from the exchanged gunfire. At approximately 1350 hours, Andersen requested medical aid.

At approximately 1351 hours, Sanchez arrived at the scene. Sanchez rolled Cardenas' body from his back to his stomach. Sanchez handcuffed Cardenas to the rear. Sanchez located a black handgun on the ground near Cardenas' body and gave it to Demuri to be secured. Multiple deputies arrived and provided medical aid to Andersen.

At approximately 1400 hours, Victorville City Fire Department (VCFD) Captain [redacted] pronounced Cardenas deceased.

At approximately 1402 hours, American Medical Response (AMR) transported Andersen to Liberty Park, at 13016 Amethyst Road, in Victorville, a designated landing zone for Air Rescue 306. At approximately 1422 hours, Air Rescue 306 transported Andersen to [redacted] Medical Center [redacted] at [redacted], in [redacted].

At approximately 1420 hours, Deputy Mark Valencia started a crime scene log and the area surrounding the crime scene at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville, was secured using scene tape.

WALKTHROUGH:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1717 hours, I participated in a walkthrough of the crime scene located at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville. Sanchez led the walkthrough. The following is a summary of the walkthrough and the personnel who were present.

- Captain Joseph Janowicz, SBCSD, Specialized Investigations Division - Homicide Detail
- Lieutenant Timothy Jackson, SBCSD, Specialized Investigations Division - Homicide Detail
- Sergeant Nicolas Craig, SBCSD, Specialized Investigations Division – Homicide Detail
- Detective Amy Bilbao, SBCSD, Specialized Investigations Division - Homicide Detail

- Detective Francisco Demara, Specialized Investigations Division - Homicide Detail
- Detective Justin Applegate, Specialized Investigations Division - Homicide Detail
- Deputy Isaac Sanchez, SBCSD, Hesperia Station
- Crime Scene Investigator [redacted] SBCSD, Scientific Investigation Division

The crime scene was located inside and outside of the AM/PM. Sanchez led investigators to the crime scene from the northeast side of the parking lot. As we approached the front door, Sanchez identified Cardenas' silver Nissan Altima parked near the AM/PM front door. There were multiple fired cartridge casings (FCCs) on the ground near the Altima and front door. Cardenas' body lay supine with his head pointed southeast and tilted to his left. His hands were under his body behind his back. The glass doors to the AM/PM were shattered and there were shards of glass on the ground inside and outside of the store. To preserve the crime scene and not disturb evidence, the walkthrough ended near the front curb of the AM/PM.

This concluded Sanchez's walkthrough.

Based on a review of Andersen's body worn camera and the number of cartridges in the two additional magazines, the magazine with eight cartridges was likely the initial magazine loaded in Andersen's handgun at the start of the lethal force encounter. After Andersen completed a magazine change, the second magazine would likely have been the one which contained 14 cartridges. After Andersen completed a second magazine change, the third magazine was the magazine inserted in Andersen's handgun at the conclusion of the lethal force encounter.

EQUIPMENT PROCESSING: Sergeant Shane Andersen

The ballistic vest Andersen wore during the lethal force encounter was found on the passenger floorboard of patrol vehicle number 16507. The ballistic vest was inspected and no damage was located to the outer carrier, the straps, or the ballistic vest panels. Andersen's Sam Browne duty belt was also on the floorboard. Andersen's department issued Taser X2 had damage to the inside of the grip. The damage was consistent with a bullet strike. Small pieces of glass were found inside of the taser holster.

Clark provided me with a pair of black First Tactical Boots worn by SBCSD Sergeant Shane Andersen during the lethal force encounter. The interior side of the right boot had a hole just above the sole, near the zipper. There was a hole in the center of the insole that proceeded into the sole of the boot. Based on my training and experience, the hole in the interior of the boot and subsequent holes inside the boot were caused by a bullet.

I attempted to recover a fired bullet or fired bullet fragment from the sole of the boot but was unsuccessful. I photographed all of the items collected and placed them into evidence.

I was also wearing my Sam Brown duty belt. On my belt, I had a Taser; an HT radio; a RCB baton; two sets of handcuffs; a OC, Oleoresin Capsicum; handheld deployable. I had my duty pistol which is a Glock-17 MOS and I had two additional magazines from my Glock. And I had a hobble around my right foot. And I was wearing black polished boots.

PASLAK: Okay. And then on December 1, were you under a doctor's care or taking any prescribed medications that affected your ability to perform at the time of the shooting?

ANDERSEN: No.

PASLAK: Okay. And then what weapons did you use during the lethal force encounter?

ANDERSEN: My Glock-17 MOS.

PASLAK: Okay. What caliber is that?

ANDERSEN: It's a nine-millimeter.

PASLAK: And how do you typically load that weapon?

ANDERSEN: I typically load the magazines to the full, which is about 17 rounds, and then I chamber round which would be an additional round for a total of 18.

PASLAK: So, you load the magazine with 17, you chamber around, and then add another one to the magazine.

ANDERSEN: Yes, sir.

PASLAK: Okay. And then how many are in the additional magazines that you carry on your Sam Brown belt.

ANDERSEN: I carry two additional magazines also loaded to 17.

PASLAK: Okay. And is that how you remember your magazines being loaded before the shooting?

ANDERSEN: Yes.

PASLAK: Okay. And how many shots do you remember firing?

ANDERSEN: I can't recall the number of shots I fired.

PASLAK: Were you injured?

ANDERSEN: Yes.

PASLAK: Can you describe those injuries to me?

ANDERSEN: I've received a gunshot wound to the heel of my right foot, a gunshot wound through and through to my right thigh. I received a through and through gunshot wound to my left calf, and I received a gunshot wound to my left thigh and the bullet is still in my left thigh.

PASLAK: Have you ever been involved in a lethal force encounter before?

ANDERSEN: I've never been a shooter in a lethal force encounter, no.

PASLAK: Okay. All right. What I'd like to do at this time, Sergeant Anderson, is to just start at the beginning of your shift and kind of give me a rundown, and then just a running narrative of the events as they occurred.

ANDERSEN: So, I was assigned that day to work overtime for Victorville City as they have a contract with the mall for holiday overtime to just provide general security for the area and to respond to calls for service in the mall area and emergency calls in the nearby areas. I normally work for Hesperia Station but, because it was the night of Victorville's Christmas party, they were short-staffed for their mall overtime, so, I volunteered to work the mall overtime.

I was parked in the parking lot over near the Freddy's at the intersection of Amargosa and Bear Valley Road when dispatch aired a call for service regarding a man with a gun at the AM/PM at Bear Valley and Amethyst. Because it was a priority call, I decided that I should respond to that call, and I responded to that call from my location over by the Freddy's area. Enroute to the call, dispatch aired that the -- dispatch put over the radio that a caller was calling in stating there was a man with a gun in a vehicle out front, and that a female victim had been threatened with the gun and the female victim was hiding in the restroom at the AM/PM.

When I arrived at the location, I saw two matching vehicles. I believe it was -- they aired, or they put out over the radio that it was a Nissan Altima. I saw -- As I entered the parking lot from the south side of the parking lot on Bear Valley, I went counterclockwise around the gas pumps. I saw a silver Nissan Altima parked at the gas pumps and it was unoccupied. I saw another silver Nissan Altima parked in front of the store on the east face, kind of near the glass front doors of the store. It had extremely dark window tint. I couldn't see into the vehicle at first.

As I pulled in kind of behind it, I could see both of the Nissan Altima's. The one at the gas pumps was unoccupied so I determined that the other one with the dark windows was potentially the involved vehicle. As I positioned my marked patrol unit behind it, I could see a head -- the outline of a head in the driver's seat. So, I pulled my marked patrol unit closer to the vehicle so that -- to prevent it from trying to back out.

As I parked my unit, ran the plate over the air, I got the plate return. I believe it came back code-30. I saw a male driver exit the vehicle. I got out of the vehicle as well. He began -- he pulled up his pants and he began walking towards the store. As he was walking towards the store, I said something along the lines of like, hey, come over here and let me talk to you. He kind of glanced over his shoulder a little bit and then started walking more quickly towards the store.

And my thought was that this was probably the involved party. He's glanced over his shoulder, he sees who I am, and now he's trying to flee from me. I knew that the female, potentially victim, was inside the store. dispatch had already aired that he had a gun. So, my concern was he was going to go into the store, potentially with that weapon, and go after the female that was hiding from him. He continued walking. I told him to stop. He didn't stop. He picked -- he picked up his speed a little bit, so I started jogging towards him.

As I started jogging towards him, he reached the door. So, I put out -- or I tried to put out over the radio foot pursuit. I'm not sure if it ever went out. He pulled open the door and I tried to grab ahold of him. As I grabbed ahold of him, he reached into his waistband and began turning towards me. As he was reaching into his waistband, I could see the grip and the magazine of a pistol. I took a step backwards. He kept walking backwards into the store. He pulled out the pistol completely out of his pants. He leveled it at me. He took a firing stance with the weapon pointed at me.

During that time, I drew my own weapon once I recognized that he was in a firing stance. I heard him yell something. I think he said, fuck, and I couldn't make out the rest of it. As I recognized that he had the pistol pointed towards me in a firing stance, I started firing. I'm not sure if he fired first or I fired first. He -- we started firing at each other. He started strafing to his right. Recognizing that he was strafing to his right, I strafed to my left. I saw the glass of the windows starting to explode around me. I felt burning in my left and right legs. I begin moving -- or continued strafing to the right. I recognized that I have some sort of malfunction in my pistol. There was one window that wasn't exploding around me, so I took cover behind that window. I put out that I had fired shots, I was engaged with the suspect, and that I was hit. I conducted a reload on my magazine to fix the malfunction. As I was fixing the malfunction, my thought was as soon as my malfunction was clear, I was going to try and go locate him in the store.

I heard moaning coming from inside the store. So, I suspected that maybe he was hit and maybe he was down. As I finished my reload, he burst out the front door of the store. He caught me off -- by surprise, I didn't expect him to come out of the store. And he took another firing stance towards me, so I fired additional rounds. I don't remember how many. During that course of fire, I incurred another malfunction. He fell to the ground. I conducted another reload.

As I finished that reload, I brought my pistol back on target to determine if there was still a threat. As I brought my pistol back on target, he was laying on the ground, moving back and forth, and his arms -- I didn't have clear visual of his right arm. I could kind of see part of his left arm and hand. I could see part of the gun on the floor near his left leg. As he moved his left arm, he pushed the door open and my thought was, he's pushing the door open to reach for the gun that's near his left arm. So, I began firing additional rounds at him.

During the course of firing those rounds, he stopped moving and stopped reaching so I stopped my course of fire. At that point, I took a moment to re-collect myself. I put out OTA over the radio that shots had been fired, I was hit multiple times, and that the suspect appeared to be down. During my final reload, I recognized that I couldn't really move my legs at all. I was a little bit concerned that if he got up and began to re-engage me that I wasn't going to be able to reposition myself any further. I had burning in my legs and I could see blood on the ground so I knew I had been hit in the legs.

After he stopped moving and I'd fired my final rounds, I took a moment to re-collect myself. I brought my pistol back on target just in case he decided that he wanted to reach for the gun again. And at that point, I just held -- I held Lethal Cover on the suspect until additional units arrived. When -- I believe the first unit to arrive was Isaac Sanchez. Isaac asked me -- I think he was trying to ask me if there was any more suspects. I told him -- or first he asked me if I was hit. I told him I was hit in the legs, and I don't know where else.

During the first volley of fire, I helped -- I felt something hit the left side of my vest near my ribs, but I wasn't sure if it was a shot or if it was shrapnel or what it was. Isaac told me to -- I told Isaac that was the only suspect. Isaac told me to hold lethal cover while he detained the suspect. Isaac handcuffed the -- pulled the suspect out of the doorway and handcuffed him. And at that point, I saw the gun moving around on the floor. I lost track of the gun, during all the movement.

And then additional units started showing up. I think Sergeant De Muri might have been the second person. He told me that everything was safe, and I can holster my weapon. So, I holster my weapon. They started asking me where I was hit, I wasn't really sure at that time. I knew I had been hit in the legs, but I couldn't see -- I could clearly see the gunshot wound in my right thigh and I could see blood near my left leg, but I couldn't really feel where. I still don't have feeling in my left calf.

So then, I tried to take the hobble off of my right leg and deploy it as a tourniquet onto my right leg. While I was doing that, Deputy Phung arrived on scene, and he used his tourniquet on my right leg. I believe somebody else put a tourniquet on my left leg and shortly after that, the ambulance arrived, and they loaded me into the ambulance. They transported me to a nearby park. They had taken my boots off when they were -- sometime during the time when they were putting the tourniquet on.

When the ambulance got to the park, they took my socks off and they told me that I was also shot in the foot, in the right foot. After that, they loaded me into 40-KING's rescue ship and then they transported me to [redacted] for further treatment.

PASLAK: Okay. All right. You need a break or anything?

ANDERSEN: Oh, I'm good.

PASLAK: Okay. What I'd like to do at this point, Sergeant Andersen, we'll just kind of go back to the beginning and then we'll work our way back through the events. Okay?

ANDERSEN: Okay.

PASLAK: So, you stated you were working an overtime retail theft that day. Where did you -- or did you conduct a briefing that day?

ANDERSEN: Yeah, we had a briefing with Sergeant De Muri and the other units working it at the Victorville Station, and I believe it was around noon.

PASLAK: And you stated, you were driving Unit 1913. Is that a Hesperia police unit or is that a Victorville City police unit?

ANDERSEN: It was a Hesperia police unit.

PASLAK: Okay. Could you describe when you retrieved that and how you loaded up your vehicle that day?

ANDERSEN: So, that day I loaded my vehicle with an AR-15 rifle. The vehicle is a white Ford Explorer. It's got the sheriff's star on both sides. It's got spotlights, both the driver and passenger spotlight. It has a push bar, and it has an overhead light system -- light bar system that has a solid red, flashing blue lights.

PASLAK: And is your unit equipped with any less than lethal options?

ANDERSEN: Yes, there's a less lethal shotgun in the rear cargo area.

PASLAK: Okay. So, at approximately what time was it when you were near Freddy's at Bear Valley and Amargosa Road?

ANDERSEN: I'd say it was probably about 1340-ish. 1340, 1345 hours.

PASLAK: Okay, and do you remember the approximate call time when dispatch aired the man for gun call?

ANDERSEN: It was probably about that time.

PASLAK: Okay.

ANDERSEN: I don't remember exactly when I got to Freddy's. But I do remember I was in the parking lot about that time when the call aired, and I think the call aired about 1340, 1345 hours.

PASLAK: Okay. And can you describe me what a man gun call is?

ANDERSEN: A man gun call is when dispatch receives a call for service from the public in which the public describes a subject having a weapon or a firearm. It's generalized as a man gun call but the gun -- the call could apply to a male or a female.

PASLAK: Okay. And having been with the department for [redacted] and on patrol since [redacted] what concerns does a man gun call create for you when you're responding?

ANDERSEN: The major concerns with man gun call are going to be obviously, that there is a subject who is armed. We don't know his intent with that firearm. It could range anywhere from if you're working a more rural area. It could be just a subject who's out hunting, and it alarms the public. In some of our more urban areas, it could be a violent felon who's carrying a firearm for a nefarious purpose.

PASLAK: Okay. You describe the initial call for service was a female reporting [redacted] had a gun in the parking lot.

ANDERSEN: I don't recall if she said it was [redacted], but it was definitely a female calling in saying that she had been threatened by a male with a gun in the parking lot.

PASLAK: Okay. Did she state where that occurred at?

ANDERSEN: I believe that the call said that it occurred at the AM/PM.

PASLAK: You responded from the intersection near Bear Valley and Amargosa Road. What route and how was your response when you were responding to the AM/PM?

ANDERSEN: I responded from that parking lot area near the Freddy's. I believe I went south near -- I think it's a Michael's, through that parking lot; along the roadway north between -- to the west of the Lowe's, there's a driveway there. To the intersection right there at Bear Valley Road. I forget what the intersection is, but it's a roadway that leads over to the mall. I turned left on that roadway and -- which is west, and I proceeded west on Bear Valley Road until I reached Amethyst. Once I got to Amethyst, I continued through the intersection of Amethyst, and I turned right into the parking lot of the AM/PM.

PASLAK: How long did it take for you to arrive?

ANDERSEN: I don't know the exact time, but I'd say not more than a couple minutes.

PASLAK: Okay. While you were enroute, was there any additional information broadcasted?

ANDERSEN: They aired some information, but I don't think it was -- I can't really remember what was aired in the initial call and what was aired while I was enroute.

PASLAK: Okay. What, if any information, did you receive regarding a suspected crime which occurred?

ANDERSEN: Based on the circumstances that dispatch put over the radio, I suspected that there might be some sort of domestic. I don't recall if the female said it was [redacted] or not. But based on the circumstances, it sounded like she probably had [redacted] with this male. So, I believed that there could be a domestic in progress. Definitely, it sounded like there was a criminal threats that had occurred and potentially, an assault with a deadly weapon.

PASLAK: Okay. You enter the parking lot on the south side of the store, and you said you went counterclockwise around. Where was the silver Altima parked that you ended up parking behind?

ANDERSEN: The silver Altima was parked -- I'm not sure if it was parked in a parking spot or not. But it was parked -- It was the closest vehicle to the front door of the AM/PM.

PASLAK: Okay. And when…

ANDERSEN: And it was parked -- The silver Altima was parked facing west, towards the store, where the front door was.

PASLAK: When you parked behind the silver Altima, what was your intention?

ANDERSEN: My intention was to park behind it. As I pulled closer, I could see there was somebody inside. I pulled a little closer so that the vehicle couldn't just back out and flee. I suspected, at that time, that it was probably the vehicle from the call based on the fact that -- it had been put out the car was parked in front of the store. There appeared to be a single occupant in the car, and the only other Altima that I could see had nobody in it. It wasn't parked near the front of the store. So, my intention was to keep that vehicle from fleeing before I could try and figure out what exactly was going on.

PASLAK: Were you provided with a license plate for the related suspect vehicle?

ANDERSEN: I do not think that Dispatch put out a license plate.

PASLAK: Okay. When you parked behind the Altima, were your overhead lights activated?

ANDERSEN: No.

PASLAK: Okay. Where did you first see the suspect who was later identified as Jorge Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: The first time I saw him was when he exited the driver's seat of the Altima.

PASLAK: Okay. Were you provided a description of the suspect -- of Cardenas while you were enroute?

ANDERSEN: I don't recall there being a description provided.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me when Cardenas gets out the car, what occurs?

ANDERSEN: So, he opened the driver's side door of the vehicle as I was still trying to analyze the scene that we had. There was a lot of people in the parking lot, a lot of vehicles; it's a pretty busy intersection. He exited the vehicle. And as he exited the vehicle, I got out of my vehicle. He pulled up his pants, which was weird to me. I know that it's a sign of somebody carrying a weapon when they adjust their pants and the waistband a lot, so that raised the hairs on the back of my neck.

As I started approaching him and I called out to him, he glanced over his shoulder at me and then began walking faster to the store. Which, in my mind, told me that he recognized I was a law enforcement officer, and he was trying to get into the store to the female before I could get my hands on him.

PASLAK: You stated, you know when people are adjusting their waistband or pulling their pants up, it's indicative of them having a firearm. What is that based off of?

ANDERSEN: It's based off my training experience, classes I've taken over the years, the number of people that I've contacted through the course of my 16-year career that have had firearms on them, and the patterns of behavior that I've observed of them before discovering that they had a firearm on them.

PASLAK: Okay. In your training or experience, are public places with no security common targets for active shooter engagement or violent attacks?

ANDERSEN: Yes.

PASLAK: Okay. Did you consider the risk to the public in your decision to approach Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: Yeah. One of the things that I initially considered was whether it would be appropriate to do a felony T-stop on the vehicle. There was another male subject standing right next to Cardenas's vehicle. So, I began weighing the risk of if a felony T-stop would be appropriate; especially with the backdrop of the store, the people standing right next to it. I felt like if I could try and contact him without any firearms, that would be the safest for the public. Unfortunately, he made a different decision.

PASLAK: When Cardenas -- and I just want to show you real quick a picture and see if you recognize this subject at all. Do you recognize that photo at all?

ANDERSEN: Yeah, that's gonna be the subject that shot at me.

PASLAK: Okay. I'll just refer to him as Cardenas for the remainder of our interview.

ANDERSEN: Okay.

PASLAK: We'll label that as number one. Okay. When Cardenas first got out of the car and was making his way, did you actually see a weapon on him at all?

ANDERSEN: When he first exited the car, I didn't see a weapon. I didn't see the weapon until I tried to grab him, and he turned, and began pulling it out of his waistband.

PASLAK: Okay. As you're telling him, hey, come talk to me, and he's not listening. He knows you're a cop based off of his -- your perception of him looking at you. What's going through your head? How's that making you feel?

ANDERSEN: I definitely thought, at that point, that he was not going to be compliant. He had already not complied with my request to talk to me. That's when I told him to stop, he failed to comply with my command to stop. So, at that point, my thought was, Well, I need to put actual hands and detain this guy before he gets in that store. I recognize that there was a lot of foot traffic in and out of the store. So, my concern was that once we got inside, it would get a lot more complicated with all the people inside the store. Plus, I had the belief that he was going inside the store to hurt the female that had called in for our help.

PASLAK: Okay. He makes it to the front door of the business when you attempt to take hold of him.

ANDERSEN: Mm-hmm [affirmation].

PASLAK: What was your intention when you were trying to take hold of him?

ANDERSEN: My intention was to stop him, gain control of his hands, and detain him until I could figure out what exactly was going on with this call for service.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me the manner in which he produced the firearm?

ANDERSEN: I took hold of him. I think I took hold of him with my right hand. He was trying to go into the door. As I took hold of him, he shrugged off my grip, and he reached into his waistband. I know he reached for the weapon with his right hand. I think he might have moved his shirt with his left hand. I definitely remember having a clear view of the grip of the pistol and the magazine extending out of his waistband.

PASLAK: Where is he at when this happens?

ANDERSEN: I would say he's probably about right in the doorway of the AM/PM.

PASLAK: Where are you at?

ANDERSEN: Directly behind him.

PASLAK: Okay. So, he pulls up his shirt or you believe he may have pulled up his shirt and produces a firearm. How does that transpire from there?

ANDERSEN: So, my first thought is, Okay, he actually does have a gun on him. It's not terribly uncommon in Victorville to get man with a gun calls where the caller will call in and say he has a gun just to expedite the police response. So, my first thought -- obviously, when I come into those situations, we have to consider the worst-case scenario for our safety and the public's safety. So, we have to be cognizant of the fact that if they say he has a gun, he might have a gun.

ANDERSEN: When he began reaching --display -- or when I could see the gun and he began reaching for it, my first thought was, okay, he does actually have a gun. And as he began pulling it out, my thought was, I need to -- I need to pull my weapon out. So, I began pulling my weapon out. And during that process, I took steps backwards, I think, to clear myself up the doorway and gain a firing stance. And as I was doing that, I remember having a very clear picture of him in a shooting stance, pointing weapon at me.

And that's when I made the decision to fire because I knew it takes a very short time for somebody that's already in the firing stance to begin firing and I knew that he was going to probably shoot me. So, to prevent myself from getting shot, I began firing at him. He began firing back at me. Like I said, I don't really remember which one of us began firing first. But I definitely began taking fire from him and I could see the windows of the AM/PM exploding around me.

And during that time, I also felt the burning in my legs which, based on my training and experience and discussions with people who have been shot, I knew that to be indicative of the fact that I'd been shot in my legs.

PASLAK: Okay. So, he pulls the gun out, you say he takes a shooting stance.

ANDERSEN: Right.

PASLAK: Can you describe that shooting stance to me?

ANDERSEN: So, his shooting stance was he had the pistol in both hands in a -- kind of a squared up. Both his feet were pointed towards me, his shoulders were pointed towards me, his hips were pointing towards me, he had the pistol out in front of him in a position that appeared that he was picking or looking down his sights of the weapon at me.

PASLAK: When he's pointing the gun at you, how did that make you feel?

ANDERSEN: It made me feel like I was about to get shot. I was in fear of my life. I knew that, based on his shooting stance, he was probably at least a semi proficient shooter. He didn't take what appeared to me to be the stance of an inexperienced shooter. It appeared to be an experienced shooter stance. So, I knew that if I didn't react to defend myself, there was a good chance that I was gonna lose my life.

PASLAK: When he takes this shooting stance, where is he at in the store?

ANDERSEN: I don't know the exact distance, but he was a few feet into the store near whatever display was nearest to the front door.

PASLAK: Okay, and where were you at in relation?

ANDERSEN: I was just outside of the front doors. I would say just beyond the swing path of the right door.

PASLAK: Okay. Are their doors open? Are they closed at this time? Are they -- ANDERSEN: The left door is closed and the right door, I had -- When he went into the store, I had pushed it open. So, it was partially open, and it was beginning to close.

PASLAK: Okay. Were there any stickers or obstructions on the doors that blocked your view into the store or of Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: I don't recall.

PASLAK: Okay. While enroute to the call or as it was occurring, did you request any additional deputies?

ANDERSEN: I requested additional deputies, I believe, after I had been shot when I put out my radio traffic. I'm not 100% sure, but I knew that there was quite a few deputies enroute to the call. While I was enroute to the call, my computer showed the call status, and I could see that there was several deputies enroute with me as well.

PASLAK: After getting -- contacting Cardenas, have you ever had any prior contact with him before? Recognize him at all?

ANDERSEN: No.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe Cardenas' clothing to me that he was wearing at this time.

ANDERSEN: He was wearing a black T-shirt and, I think, he was wearing jeans.

PASLAK: Can you describe the firearm to me?

ANDERSEN: I didn't have a super clear view of any distinguishing features of the firearm. It was a black pistol. Based on the rate of fire, it was a semi-automatic pistol. His -- the magazine extending out of the pistol was clear and I recognized that the fact that it was extending out of the pistol meant that it was a higher capacity than normal.

PASLAK: I know you said you believe you heard him say, fuck, when -- inside the store. Is there any other -- anything else he said to you prior to this point at all?

ANDERSEN: That's the only thing I remember him saying.

PASLAK: Okay, Were you able to give Cardenas any verbal commands once he started retrieving the firearm?

ANDERSEN: No. The only -- After telling him to stop, I didn't have an opportunity to give any verbal commands. The situation unfolded more rapidly than I could do that.

PASLAK: Okay. He's taking the shooting stance that you recognize as having experience in handling firearms. Describe the immediate threat Cardenas posed as he held that fire.

ANDERSEN: So, based on his shooting stance, I felt that he was an immediate threat to me because he was already looking down the sights of his pistol, which means that he's ready to fire. His experienced shooter stance and my belief that he was an experienced shooter told me that based on the distance we were from each other; it was likely that he could eat-- probably hit me pretty easily. So, I felt that if I didn't react to that threat and stop that threat that he was going to hit me with any rounds that he fired.

PASLAK: When Cardenas pointed a gun at you, what do you think he intended to do?

ANDERSEN: I think he intended to kill me.

PASLAK: Do you remember seeing anybody else around you and Cardenas at this time?

ANDERSEN: I knew that there was people in the store. But when he pulled the pistol and when I began firing, I did not see anybody immediately behind him and I didn't see anybody in the path between him and I.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me you removing your firearm and the firing stance that you put yourself in.

ANDERSEN: I drew my firearm with my right hand. I took a two-handed grip on my firearm. I squared myself similarly to how he did. My feet, and my hips, my shoulders were square to the target. I brought the firearm up to my line of sight so that I could engage the target and I was slightly crouched to have better control over the weapon.

PASLAK: And what kind of optic system do you have on your firearm?

ANDERSEN: I have a Trijicon RMR.

PASLAK: Is that just like a red dot reflex sight?

ANDERSEN: That's correct.

PASLAK: Where are you aiming at on Cardenas' body?

ANDERSEN: I was aiming center mass of his body.

PASLAK: Okay. Do you remember how many rounds you fired at this time?

ANDERSEN: I don't.

PASLAK: Are you aware if you struck Cardenas during the initial volley of gunfire?

ANDERSEN: I didn't see any reaction from Cardenas that would lead me to believe he was struck. However, when I took cover to fix my malfunction, I did hear what I believe to be a male in proximity to the door moaning which led me to believe that maybe I had struck him during the initial rounds.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me the malfunction that you had on your firearm at this time.

ANDERSEN: I didn't take the time to look closely at the malfunction. I knew that I had not shot the full capacity of my magazine, and I had pulled the trigger during the engagement with Cardenas, and I had -- no additional rounds were fired. I could see on my slide that there wasn't any sort of stovepipe malfunction. So, I decided the fastest way to clear that malfunction would just be a really-- reload. I knew I had two additional magazines, and I could afford to just reload and re-rack the slide.

PASLAK: Described to me at what point you realized Cardenas was firing at you.

ANDERSEN: Almost immediately as I came on target. I can't remember whether he fired first, or I fired first. But almost immediately as I began firing, I saw and felt the shrapnel -- I saw the windows, the glass front windows of the doors, began to explode and I felt the shrapnel from the explosions hitting me.

PASLAK: Describe to me your decision to take cover at that time.

ANDERSEN: I incurred a malfunction so I knew that I couldn't engage him in a gunfight anymore until that malfunction was fixed. His fire was continuous at the time; he hadn't stopped firing. So, I decided that taking cover was my best option to fix my malfunction rather than to leave myself in an open position where I'd continue to take rounds without being able to return fire.

PASLAK: Describe to me how it made you feel knowing Cardenas is continually firing at you, you have a malfunction in your firearm, and it's not working at that point, and you have to take cover.

ANDERSEN: Knowing that I wasn't firing at him, and he was continuing to fire at me made me feel like he definitely was going to pursue me and this engagement until I was dead.

PASLAK: Describe to me what your thought process is at the time after you reload your firearm, and you're making it ready again.

ANDERSEN: So, my thought process was I'm going to reload my firearm. I could hear what I thought was him moaning from inside the store. So, my thought was, I need to go in there, I need to see if he's injured. If he was injured, my plan was to get the firearm away from him and call for medical services to treat whatever injuries he had incurred. At that point, I knew that if I went inside, he previously was very aggressive in his attack on me. And if he wanted to continue that attack, I would have to deal with the threat and make sure that he wasn't in a position to hurt anybody else inside the store.

PASLAK: Describe to me what cover you're behind at this time.

ANDERSEN: From my perspective, looking outside the store, it was just another window. I didn't know why that window wasn't exploding like the rest of them. But I recognize that all the rest of the windows had bullet holes and were shattering, that one wasn't. So, I determined that was probably the safest place to conduct my reload.

PASLAK: And how are you -- how's your body positioned while you're conducting your reload?

ANDERSEN: I was crouched. I might have been on a knee. I don't really recall. I do remember at that point, as I was conducting the reload and he came out, I shifted my body to square up to him as he came through the door. And I think at that point, I had settled onto my back or onto my butt and I began to notice that my legs weren't responding as I was trying to shift them. And I was positioned facing him in the doorway as he came out.

PASLAK: And is this the first time that you realized that you had been shot or believed you had been shot?

ANDERSEN: I knew almost immediately as the volley of fire began. I felt the burning in my legs, and I knew that to mean that I had been shot. It wasn't until after my reload when he came out that I realized my legs weren't working; to be simple about it. I just -- My legs stopped responding to what I wanted them to do.

PASLAK: So, you weren't able to move freely as you were before the shooting occurred.

ANDERSEN: Right.

PASLAK: So, you're sit -- seated on your butt at this point, almost as he's coming out the door. How is he exiting that door?

ANDERSEN: He exited the door very rapidly. It surprised me. It caught me off guard. I didn't expect him to pursue me outside of the store. I knew that his intention in firing at me and continuing to fire even after I'd stopped was a sign that he wanted to kill me. I was very surprised at how aggressive in his tactics he was. As I finished my reload, he threw the door open with enough force that that remaining glass in the door started falling out and he pointed the weapon at me again.

And at that point, I knew he wasn't going to stop pursuing me until I was dead. So, I began firing at him. I don't know if he fired any more rounds. And then during that course of fire -- I don't remember how many rounds I fired. During that course of fire, he went to the ground and, again, I noticed that my weapon wasn't responding. I went to perform another mag change and I realized there was no magazine in my gun. At that point, I thought either I had hit my magazine release when he surprised me, or I hadn't seated my magazine fully during my reload. So, I reloaded another magazine, and I racked my slide.

PASLAK: Describe to me your platform as you're returning fire or you're firing at Cardenas as he exited the door.

ANDERSEN: I was -- I think initially, I had my legs bent. And I think as I shifted towards the threat that came out the door at me, I settled onto my butt with my legs splayed out in front of me in a V.

PASLAK: Is there a tactical disadvantage to being in a seated position versus somebody who's firing from a standing position?

ANDERSEN: Yes. By being seated, I knew that I couldn't get cover. I knew that he had the advantage of mobility where I was in a stationary position. So, if -- as the engagement went longer, he could reposition to a position of cover, he could reposition to an advantage angle whereas I was stuck on my butt with my legs not functioning.

PASLAK: Just to back track really quick, describe the rate of fire on the first volley that you fired.

ANDERSEN: My rate of fire? Or his rate of fire?

PASLAK: Your rate of fire.

ANDERSEN: I would say it was a pretty steady rate of fire. I don't know how many rounds per minute I was firing, but it was a steady rate of fire that allowed my pistol to come back on target after every fire -- every round.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me the rate on your second volley of fire.

ANDERSEN: My second volley of fire was a little more accelerated. I was surprised by his continued attack on me, and he was a lot closer, and there was a lot less obstructions between him and I during the second rate of fire. So, I was able to fire a little more rapidly.

PASLAK: How far apart are you when you were seated on the ground, and he exits the door?

ANDERSEN: I would say no more than a couple feet.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me -- Are you looking through your optics? Are you point shooting at this time?

ANDERSEN: At that point, I don't remember picking up my optics. I remember coming on target with my pistol, but I don't remember seeing my red dot.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe me what you think would have happened if you didn't fire at Cardenas at that time.

ANDERSEN: He would have killed me.

PASLAK: Okay. You fire your rounds; you say that he falls to the ground. Describe to me how he's laying on the ground at this time.

ANDERSEN: He was laying on the ground, on his back. His head was towards the interior of the store. I could see the pistol on the ground, near the edge of the door. The right door of the store was open, and it was held open by his body and his left arm.

PASLAK: Could you see where the gun was at, at this point?

ANDERSEN: I could see the shape of the gun near his left side on the ground, kind of near the edge of the door.

PASLAK: Okay. Was Cardenas saying anything at this point?

ANDERSEN: Nothing that I could hear.

PASLAK: So, you're looking at Cardenas; he's laying on his back. Is he still moving?

ANDERSEN: Yeah, he was still moving. He was kind of moving his arms and it looked like his body and maybe his head was moving.

PASLAK: Okay. What's going through your head at this point?

ANDERSEN: My thought is he's down. So, I know that he poses a threat still because he's moving. Based on the two previous assaults and how aggressive he was in his assaults, I knew that given the opportunity, he would continue to attack me and try to finish me off.

PASLAK: What happens next?

ANDERSEN: As I finished my reload and I came back on target to hold him at gunpoint until additional units arrived, he uses his left arm, and he rapidly pushes the door open. As that happens, my thought was, okay, well he's going to continue to try and kill me now. I knew that the weapon was within his reach, and I thought that that was like a last effort on his part to try and get the weapon and finish me off. So, I began firing. I fired several more rounds, I don't know how many, and he began to stop moving. At that point, the door settled back into position, and I didn't see him reaching towards anything any longer.

PASLAK: What is your shooting platform during the third volley of fire?

ANDERSEN: The same shooting platform I had before. I'm on my on my butt, my legs are splayed out in front of me in a V, and I have my pistol in front of me and held by both my hands.

PASLAK: Okay. Was there anything between Cardenas and you as he was laying by the door and you were seated up against the part window -- partition there?

ANDERSEN: Just the bottom of the door.

PASLAK: Okay.

ANDERSEN: I believe that most of the glass was out of the door at that point.

PASLAK: After you fired the final volley, what made you stop firing?

ANDERSEN: He stopped moving. He stopped reaching, he stopped moving the door, he stopped rolling round. My thought was those rounds had stopped his threat against me, and I didn't need to fire any more rounds.

PASLAK: At this time, how did you feel after all this had just evolved? What's going through your head at this point?

ANDERSEN: I felt lucky to be alive so far. I didn't know the extent of the injuries to my legs. I knew that there were bones, and critical veins, and arteries that could have been hit. I didn't have the time to begin addressing my own wounds because I knew that although the suspect had stopped moving, I wasn't sure that he was not going to continue his assault. So, I continued to hold him at gunpoint after I put out my radio traffic, until additional units arrived that would be more capable to assist me.

PASLAK: Okay, and you said you went over the radio. Did you request medical aid at that point at all?

ANDERSEN: I did. I told dispatch that I had been hit, to send med aid, and that the suspect was down.

PASLAK: After your final volley of gunfire, Cardenas isn't moving, did you see any other weapons or the gun on the ground still, at this point?

ANDERSEN: I'm pretty sure that the gun was still near his left side after the final volley.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe to me what happens when Sanchez pulls -- goes on scene.

ANDERSEN: Sanchez arrived. He arrived from the south entrance like I did, but he didn't go around. He just pulled kind of facing towards the store. He got out. I saw him draw his weapon. He strafed the front of the store, maintaining lethal cover on the store and the suspect. He approached me. I believe he asked me -- he asked me if I was injured or something like that, and I told him I'd been hit. He asked me something about suspects and I told him that was the only suspect. At that point, he told me to maintain lethal cover on the suspect, and he went over to secure the suspect to make sure that he couldn't continue his assault.

PASLAK: Are you aware of Sanchez handcuffing Cardenas at all?

ANDERSEN: Yes.

PASLAK: Okay. You said Sergeant De Muri arrived on scene shortly thereafter. Would that have been Sergeant Simon De Muri?

ANDERSEN: Yes, sir.

PASLAK: Did you see what happened to Cardenas' gun or where it went at all during this point?

ANDERSEN: I do -- The only thing I saw of his gun was when Sanchez began pulling him out of the doorway to handcuff him. I saw the gun move, but I lost track of it during the course of the movement.

PASLAK: Are you aware of any additional magazines or weapons being on Cardenas' person?

ANDERSEN: I don't remember seeing any.

PASLAK: Okay. Could you see or observe any injuries on Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: No, I saw blood on the ground and that was it.

PASLAK: You don't know where the blood was coming from on him?

ANDERSEN: No.

PASLAK: Okay. How long until medical personnel arrived on scene? Are you aware?

ANDERSEN: I have no idea.

PASLAK: Are you aware of any life saving measures being performed on Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: Nothing that -- I couldn't see what life saving measures they were performing because there was a deputy putting a tourniquet on my legs.

PASLAK: Okay. So, you were receiving medical treatment at the same time.

ANDERSEN: Right.

PASLAK: Okay. What was your hope or your plan when you approached Cardenas?

ANDERSEN: My hope was that I could stop him from going into the store so that he didn't hurt the female that was hiding in the store or anybody else. My hope was that by showing a firm grip or gesture on his person, that he would recognize that I was a law enforcement officer in a position of authority and that he should submit to that authority.

PASLAK: Okay. During the initial volley of fire, he -- when he pulls the gun, he's inside and you're outside. Is there lighting differences between where you're standing and where he's at, at this point?

ANDERSEN: Yeah, I'm in the exterior of the business, it's bright outside. He's in the interior of the business, it was dark, and I was also wearing sunglasses. So, I could clearly see Cardenas and the firearm. But past him, much further into the store, was a little dim.

PASLAK: And -- Describe to me how you felt before, during, and after the shooting.

ANDERSEN: Before the shooting, I didn't really have any specific feelings. I was responding to a call for service. My goal was to respond to this call for service, make sure nobody got hurt, and to make sure that whatever domestic or whatever violence or crime had occurred between this male and the female was resolved and handled in an appropriate manner. During the shooting, really the only thing I was thinking was this man's trying to kill me, and I need to stop his assault on me. After the shooting, my thought was I'm glad that I'm alive so far, but I hope that I'm not going to bleed out and die.

PASLAK: I know there was three separate incidents within this where you fired, and he fired at you. What was your intent when you fired your weapon during each of these volleys?

ANDERSEN: During the first volley, my intent was to stop him from killing me. He had a clear shooting platform and a clear shooting stance, and I knew that he was going to try and shoot and kill me. So, my intent there was to save my life and his threat. During the second volley of fire, my intent was -- He had actively pursued me outside of the store with the intention of killing me, so my intent was to end that threat and that assault on my life.

During the third volley of fire, I could see his rapid movements and based on his previous two assaults, I thought that he was trying to continue to assault me and wanted to try and finish me off now that I was in a vulnerable position and couldn't move. So, my intent there was to prevent and stop that continued assault on my life.

PASLAK: What was the point of aim on the third volley of fire?

ANDERSEN: The point of aim on the third volley of fire was his upper torso, chest, and neck area.

PASLAK: While all this is occurring, I know you said you knew there were people around, did you ever have visual of anybody entering the store, leaving the store, or, like, running at all?

ANDERSEN: I didn't see anybody else from the time that we got, pretty much, out of the car. I don't recall seeing anybody ever between me and him, or directly behind him.

PASLAK: You stated you were taken to a park and loaded into the sheriff's helicopter for medical treatment. What park was that?

ANDERSEN: I think it was Liberty Park.

PASLAK: And what hospital were you ultimately transported to?

ANDERSEN: [redacted]

PASLAK: Okay. Do you remember what kind of care they provided for your wounds or injuries?

ANDERSEN: I know that they bandaged me, and I received a CT scan. I know they cleaned all my wounds. They elected to not remove the bullet from my left thigh. It's still in my left thigh. Since then, I've been receiving similar treatment. I'm receiving wound care twice a day where a home health nurse comes and cleans all my wounds and packs dressings, sterile dressings, into my wounds to help with the recovery.

DEMARA: Just a couple of brief quick questions and then we could take a break.

PASLAK: Yeah.

DEMARA: With those wounds, a couple of them you mentioned -- you mentioned you had the heel, the right thigh, your left calf, and your left thigh. Some of those being through and throughs.

ANDERSEN: Yeah.

DEMARA: So, 1, 2, 3, 4 different gunshot wounds, or how many total gunshot wounds did you sustain?

ANDERSEN: I have four different gunshot wounds. I have six holes in my body, now.

DEMARA: How does that -- How have these wounds or injuries impacted you since the incident? Or on a day to day --

ANDERSEN: So, I have extreme pain in my legs most of the time. It's a little difficult to move around at times. Immediately after the shooting, I couldn't lift my legs at all for about two days. It's extremely painful when my wound care -- specialist comes and uses a long wooden Q-tip to press wound packing dressing into my right thigh. During that process, I experience nerve pain that I would describe as firey needles being pressed into my right leg and my right thigh.

DEMARA: And I may have missed it, so I apologize for kind of going back to this, but did dispatch provide any descriptions as to what the involved parties look like from the get-go?

ANDERSEN: I don't remember hearing any descriptions of the involved parties other than the vehicle.

DEMARA: And did you have contact or ever gain any additional information from the female that was involved with this?

ANDERSEN: I did not.

PASLAK: Yeah. Let's take a quick break. We will pause tape. It is...

DEMARA: 1111, and we did begin at 1010 hours.

PASLAK: We are back on tape. It is 1127 hours. Okay, Sergeant Anderson, just a few additional follow up questions for you. Do you believe it would have been beneficial in waiting for additional information from dispatch or the reporting party regarding a suspect description or suspect location?

ANDERSEN: In a normal call for service, that -- I think that would have been beneficial. Unfortunately, in this situation, I didn't have time to wait for anything. As I got on scene and positioned myself behind the car, I didn't really have any opportunity to get further information because he almost immediately got out of the car. And my first thought was this subject is in the matching car, he's a male which the caller said the man with the gun was a male.

So, there's a male getting out of a matching car, and I need to stop him from getting inside that store where there's a female victim that it looks like he's probably going after. On top of the fact, there's also a bunch of uninvolved citizens in the store.

PASLAK: Okay. Initially, you stated Cardenas was strafing to the right and you strafed to your left. Can you explain what strafing is? Or describe what that action is?

ANDERSEN: Yeah. So, as the volleys of fire began, Cardenas was taking steps to his right. Strafing is moving in a lateral position to a point. He was moving laterally to his right, and I began moving laterally to my right. So, we are moving laterally away from each other.

PASLAK: During the initial volley of fire, you stated you were just outside the swing of the front doors –

ANDERSEN: Right.

PASLAK: -- on the exterior of the business and Cardenas was inside in front of a display. Approximately, how far was it from where you were standing to the display that Cardenas would have been in front of?

ANDERSEN: I don't know the exact distance. But if I had to estimate the distance, I would say I was three feet outside the store, and he was probably 10 to 15 feet inside the store.

PASLAK: Okay. And then when you took cover from where you were knelt down and then ultimately, in a seated position; how far was it from there to the front?

ANDERSEN: I would say, three -- three to five feet.

PASLAK: During the course of this, how many shots did you see or perceive that Cardenas fired at you?

ANDERSEN: I couldn't say the exact number of shots because my perception was he was continuously firing at me. I couldn't give an estimate, but it felt continuous during the encounter.

PASLAK: I know you stated you were unsure of how many rounds you fired during the course of this. Why is that?

ANDERSEN: When the situation began and I saw his weapon, I immediately began responding and there was a number of things on my mind. My concern was trying to address my fire towards his assault in a manner that wasn't going to hurt any civilians. I was trying to position myself out of his line of fire which is why I moved laterally away from him. Then, I incurred a malfunction during that process, then I was looking for cover, then I recovered from my malfunction.

And immediately after I recovered from my malfunction, he burst out the door and tried to -- tried to kill me. And then, once he was on the ground, I immediately tried to recover from that malfunction and as soon as I recovered from that malfunction, he was swinging the door towards me and what I thought was him trying to assault me further; finish what he had started.

PASLAK: And recovering from a malfunction, is that making your gun towards a -- capable of firing again?

ANDERSEN: Yes, sir.

PASLAK: Okay. Describe how rapidly everything unfolded from your arrival and exiting your patrol unit to the last shot that you fired.

ANDERSEN: I would say that from the time I exited my patrol unit to the last shot, it seemed like less than a minute. It seemed tens of seconds.

PASLAK: Okay. When Cardenas exited the door after the first volley of fire, did you see him fire at you at that time?

ANDERSEN: When he exited the door and surprised me while I was recovering from my malfunction, I didn't see him fire, but I did see him pointing the gun at me.

PASLAK: Okay. And then -- I know we kind of talked about just real briefly, you thought you had been shot in the side. Can you describe that to me a little bit more?

ANDERSEN: So, as I was moving laterally right away from Cardenas, I felt the burning in my legs, which I knew I'd been shot in my legs. And then as I was moving, I felt an impact to my right side near my ribs. I suspected that that was probably me being shot or receiving some sort of glancing round. When I got to the hospital later that evening, I had a large bruise on my ribs from that impact.

PASLAK: And what side of the body was the bruise on?

ANDERSEN: It was on the left side of my body near my ribs.

PASLAK: Okay. And then on your gun belt, which side do you carry your taser on?

ANDERSEN: I carry my taser on my left side.

PASLAK: Okay. Are you aware of the damage that your taser sustained as a result of the shooting?

ANDERSEN: Yes.

PASLAK: Okay. Can you describe that to me?

ANDERSEN: It -- From what I was told -- I believe I saw a picture at one point, it looked like the grip of my taser had been shot.

PASLAK: Okay. You're approaching this situation. Do you feel that a less than lethal option would have been available or useful in this?

ANDERSEN: Well, my first less lethal option that I attempted in the situation was a firm grip or gesture on his shoulder and obviously, that form of de-escalation and less lethal option didn't work. And he immediately escalated from that into lethal force when he drew his pistol. There was no time for me to try any less lethal option. If I would have pulled out any less lethal option, it would have been ineffective and underwhelming against the assault from his firearm.

ANDERSEN: My patrol vehicle?

PASLAK: Yeah.

ANDERSEN: I would say initially, -- Do you want my initial or my ending?

PASLAK: Your end—

ANDERSEN: Okay.

PASLAK: Ending/ Where your vehicle ended up? Okay. And then approximately, where -- can you mark where you were at when the shooting occurred outside? Okay. I'll label this as number two. And I have another picture here that was taken during the processing of the scene. Does this look familiar to you at all?

ANDERSEN: Yeah. That's going to be my patrol unit and that's going to be the vehicle that I positioned myself behind.

PASLAK: Okay. I'll mark this one as number three. And then I know you described the gun as a black gun. You saw the extended magazine. What I have here is just… [inaudible]. There it is. Just some representations of different firearms. Do you see any of the ones that look similar to what Cardenas had that day?

ANDERSEN: I would say that it was based on the grip frame that I could see, it was most similar to the Glock in this picture.

PASLAK: Can you circle that for me? And then I'll label that one number four. And then just one last photo. This is just a depiction of the front of the store. Off to the right side of the picture would be the silver Nissan that's parked in front which should be kind of the east side of the business. To the left is the parking lot would be the west side. Can you just kind of put an X over the area where you were towards the end of the shooting?

ANDERSEN: I was right here behind this sign that says $25,000.

PASLAK: Okay. And I will mark that as number five. You have anything at all?

DEMARA: Sir, do you have any other --- Can you kind of go-- Tell me a little bit about your training experience and the different things that you've done throughout your career.

ANDERSEN: So, I worked patrol at the Victor Valley Station where I covered the unincorporated areas of the high desert as well as Adelanto. I spent five years at the Specialized Enforcement Division. I spent about three years as a detective at the Victorville Station. I've spent almost two years as a sergeant at the West Valley Detention Center. I've been at Hesperia as a patrol sergeant for about eight or nine months, and I've been a sergeant team leader on the department's mobile field force for about a year and a half.

DEMARA: Can you tell me a little bit about what you did with SED? What that is? And...

ANDERSEN: So, the Specialized Enforcement Division for our county also has the role of the SWAT team for our county. During my time at the Specialized Enforcement Division, I performed administrative duties for the division as well as the SWAT school. I was a less -- or a Chemical Agents Instructor during my time there and I was assistant team leader for about two or three years.

DEMARA: Do you feel like any of those roles have better assisted you in kind of evaluating, or what that's done and how you perform out in the field?

ANDERSEN: I feel like my time at Specialized Enforcement Division has given me a unique perspective on critical incidents. It's allowed me to both contain and control the situations more effectively, and I feel that it has given me the perspective to take a step back and handle situations in a manner that is not an overreaction and in a calm and calculated manner.

PASLAK: All right. Don't have anything else. We will go off tape at 1139 hours.

DEMARA: Thank you, sir.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. You said it was a smash and grab—

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: --operation? Okay. All right. Okay. What was your callsign on that day?

BILBAO: Okay. Did you have your belt recorder activated?

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Were you under a doctor's care or taking any prescribed medications?

SANCHEZ: No.

BILBAO: Okay. Were you injured during this incident?

SANCHZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Tell me about that.

SANCHEZ: I sustained a cut on my left hand on the webbing of my pinky.

BILBAO: Okay. Are you okay now?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Have you ever been in an LFE before? A lethal force encounter?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Okay. When was that?

SANCHEZ: It was in, I want to say September of 2022.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. So, what we're going to do now is I'm just going to hand it over to you and ask you just to kind of give me a running narrative, taking it from the time that you became aware of this call all the way through the end.

SANCHEZ: Okay. I'll just start from the beginning when we started shift—

BILBAO: Sure.

SANCHEZ: --just to kind of give a little background. I'm assigned to Hesperia; we were working a retail theft operation in the city of Victorville. We were assigned there from 12 noon to 10 at night, our duties were to respond to calls within the stores located in Victorville to prevent thefts. People coming in and looting just kind of shown presence in the businesses to kind of deter any kind of suspects.

We did a quick briefing, started at 12. I think we did briefing for like 20 minutes and then they told us to go patrol the businesses. So, the first business strip that I or shopping center that I went to was the one located in, it's on the northwest corner of Amargosa and Bear Valley, there's like a Best Buy, a 99 Cent store, Rosedale Jewelers, Outback Steakhouse, I believe.

So, I was just doing my rounds in the parking lot there and then, as I was waiting there a call got toned out by dispatch, a man gun call. They gave the address; it was at 1-3-6-6-0 Bear Valley Road. First person that I heard key up was Sergeant Anderson and his callsign was 19 "Sam" 5. He took the call. I use the MDC to add myself to the call. As I was pulling out of the shopping center to make my way to Bear Valley, I don't know the name of the street that I was on to get to Bear Valley. It was a street by the Best Buy.

A secondary call came out. It was a 32X vehicle that was, that hit the ALPR camera on Bear Valley and Mariposa. It was a red 2003 Ford Explorer. I originally heard the call; I disregarded it because I was going to go back sarge to the man gun call and then a deputy keyed up asking for more information reference that 32X vehicle. It was one of my cases, I had put the DOJ stop on the car. So, I preempted off the man gun call and I went to go handle the 32X call or the ALPR hit that came out on Bear Valley and Mariposa.

So, as I was waiting to make a left turn to go east on Bear Valley towards Bear Valley and Mariposa. That is when I believe I heard sarge go 97 at the man gun call. When he was there, he was still trying to obtain information from dispatch because when he showed up, there was two gray vehicles in the parking lot. And he was asking for clarification on whether the vehicle had tint or no tint because there was two gray vehicles parked at the gas station. So, he's still trying to get information, there was other people backing him. So that's why I preempted off to the other call.

So, as I am driving east or about to start driving east over the bridge on Bear Valley to make my way to Mariposa. I hear or Sergeant Anderson keys up and says he has shots fired. So, I do a U-turn and then I start traveling westbound towards where the gas station is located off of Amethyst. As I'm driving there, I'm trying to figure out where exactly it's at because I'm not entirely sure with-- I'm not familiar with Victorville since that's not my assigned city.

So, I grabbed my phone real quick and luckily, I had entered the address when I first took the call, so I just pull up my phone and confirm the directions and I follow my GPS to the location. While I'm in route I obviously activate my body worn camera and lights and sirens all the way. Once I crossed the intersection of Amethyst, I'm looking at or I'm looking towards the gas station trying to figure out where exactly sarge was positioned because I couldn't see his vehicle. So, I was kind of thinking maybe if, see maybe if he was in the north side behind the store or if he was directly in front. So, it's not until I turned into the driveway located on the north side of Bear Valley that I see sarge's car and I kind of tried to like in a north easterly direction park.

I draw my handgun out and I start running towards the front of the store. As I'm running towards the front of the store, I hadn't seen sarge, or the suspect. I had just seen that the windows were shattered. So, I'm kind of thinking maybe they're inside the store still. So I run towards the front of the store. As I'm getting closer to sarge, that's when I see the suspect laying approximately five feet west of Anderson. And he is-- the suspect is laying on his back, face up and sarge is leaning against glass. He has blood coming from his head. He has his gun drawn on the suspect still and his legs are crossed in like in a four figure.

I approached sarge, I'm like keep my eyes on the suspect. I'm asking sarge for more information. I asked him hey, are you hit? He tells me, yes, I'm hit in the leg. I don't know where else. So, then I broadcast on the radio that we have a deputy down. Still maintaining observations on the suspect because at this point, I don't know if he's deceased or not. The entire time while I'm getting information from sarge, I'm trying to see if the suspect's chest is rising or if he's just laying there possibly getting ready to ambush responding deputies.

So, I tell sarge to stay on lethal or to have lethal coverage while I handcuffed the suspect. I approached the suspect; I grabbed his left arm; I pull him away from the front of the store and the reason for that being is because at this point, I don't know if there's any outstanding suspects inside the store. So, I want to get away to where I'm out of view to handcuff the suspect and kind of assess him to figure out what exactly he needs to get done.

So, I pull the suspect, I roll him over onto his stomach I when I'm pulling him, I don't hear any kind of-- he's not making any kind of noises or that he's in pain. I didn't notice like any kind of like bubbles coming out of his mouth. And I prior to me pulling him too, I observe a large pool of blood on his left chest area and on the ground as well. And I want to say maybe I even saw some gunshots to the face because there was a lot of blood coming from his left chest area and on his face.

So, I pull the suspect there's no resistance. Again, I flipped him on to his-- or I turned him on to his stomach to handcuff him. I grabbed his left arm to place it behind his back and he-- the suspect has no-- there's no resistance. He's not-- I'm manipulating his body, he's not kind of fighting me, he's making he's not making any noises that he's in pain. And then I grabbed his right hand from underneath his body. I start putting it behind his back and I lose grip on it and then his hand just flails out.

So, at that point I can kind of tell okay, he's deceased because there's no signs of life at this point. My first observation of his chest not rising was one of the indicators and then when I'm manipulating his body so freely with no resistance that confirms my observation. So, I finish handcuffing him and then that's when I noticed that there is a Glock style firearm laying to the right of the suspect. It was black, the handgun was black in color. It had an extended magazine; an extended clear magazine and I want to say that I saw the spring portion sticking out of the handgun. I grabbed the handgun; the suspect's handgun and I hand it to an unknown deputy. I tell him to secure the firearm and then I continue doing a search on the suspect.

I check his waistband, I don't locate any additional firearms. I go into his left pocket, and I feel a bulge. And then I remove two additional loaded magazines and I leave-- I pull them out of his pocket, and I leave them on the ground laying to his left. And then I believe that's when another deputy goes on scene, a blonde deputy. And I tell her to go inside the business to clear the store to see if we have any additional suspects or potentially any bystanders that may have been hit.

So, she goes in there and I'm still dealing with the suspect. And then I continue my search. I remove a wallet from the suspect too and I place it on his back. And then an additional deputy walks up to me and says and asked me what do I need? I asked him-- at this point I had already made the, I had already confirmed that the suspect was deceased. So, I asked that additional deputy that showed up to start working on to start rendering medical aid to Sergeant Andersen. And then another deputy shows up, he asks me, what do we-- what do I need? I have him, I asked him to get on his cell phone and to come up with a landing zone for 40 King for our Sheriff's helicopter so we can get Andersen flown to the hospital.

So that deputy's working on that and then another deputy shows up and he asked me again, what do I need, and I have him start getting video and witness statements. At that point I'm still trying to process everything to see what else we need done. So, I've made my own mental checklist. We had medical aid for Sergeant Andersen, we were working on a landing zone, we had witnesses and videos. So, I was just trying to make myself useful, so as much as I could.

One of the deputies tells me to take Sergeant Andersen's body camera to his unit. So, I grab it and I place it in his center console in his patrol vehicle. And then I come back and then they hand me more of his gear. So, I go place that in his car, and then I kind of just started picking up all of Sergeant Andersen's gear that they had stripped off of him. And then eventually, Sergeant Andersen gets transported by the fire department. I help Andersen up onto his feet. His tourniquets were really tight, and I'm assuming he had no, he didn't have movement of his legs that well. So, I help him onto his feet and then I kind of pick up his legs and swing them onto the gurney and that's when he gets-- that's the last time I see Andersen.

And then I'm like kind of walking around the scene trying to figure out what else needs to be done. And then I start interviewing one of the-- he's a cashier, and I get a statement from him in regards to what he observed. And so--backtracking a little bit prior to Andersen getting transported. One of the deputies asks me to bring my patrol unit because I think they wanted to personally take him to the hospital. So, I don't know if their intentions were to load him up in the backseat of the patrol vehicle and then transport them or if they wanted to clear the intersections for the ambulance to make their way through. So, I had moved my vehicle to directly in front of the store. But then they were like no, the fire department is already here so we're just going to have them take Andersen.

So, I interview one person then I kind of just remain on scene for scene security. I noticed that there's a cut on my hand at one point I walk inside the store to-- I'm sorry at that point I didn't notice my hand was cut. I just knew that I had the suspect's blood all over my hands and I wanted to start taking notes on my interview with the cashier. So, I walk inside the store, I wash my hands and then as I'm taking notes, that's kind of when I noticed that my hand's bleeding. And then I continue on with interviewing, and I finished my interview with him, and I kind of just remain on scene for scene security. And nothing else was unfolding from that point from my last interview, so I turned my body camera off, and I kind of just stayed on scene for scene security to keep people out and see what else needed to be done.

BILBAO: Okay. All right, great thank you. So, I'm going to go through what you told me, I got a couple of quick questions. In regards to, sometimes we use like cop speak, so I'm just going to go through and just have you tell me what these things mean real quick. You mentioned tone out, what is-- what's a tone out?

SANCHEZ: A tone out is when a priority call comes out. It's a loud beeping noise to get our attention and then dispatch relays the information.

BILBAO: Okay. And by priority call that would mean...

SANCHEZ: Like a crime in progress.

BILBAO: Okay. You mentioned man gun.

SANCHEZ: A man gun, so that to describe that call, literally a person with a gun.

BILBAO: All right. And key up?

SANCHEZ: Key up is me pressing down my microphone to say to communicate with dispatch or my partners.

BILBAO: Okay. MDC?

SANCHEZ: MDC is the computer we use day to day basis to look at the calls we have. The calls for service we have and that relays information to us that dispatch puts into the call for service.

BILBAO: Okay. And by using that MDC that was how you placed yourself on the call for service, is that correct?

SANCHEZ: Correct.

BILBAO: Okay. And you mentioned 32X and ALPR?

SANCHEZ: So, 32X is a code we use for somebody that's considered armed and dangerous. It's-- and then the ALPR is an automated license plate reader. So, we have certain intersections in our cities where we have these ALPR cameras that notify us of stolen vehicles, wanted subjects and things of that nature.

BILBAO: Okay, great. At one point, you mentioned that Sergeant Shane Andersen went 97.

SANCHEZ: He arrived to the location of the AM PM.

BILBAO: I appreciate it. Thank you. So, when you first became aware of this call for service, you mentioned that you were just kind of going or going about your rounds going through the shopping centers. And around what time did you first become aware of this man gun call?

SANCHEZ: As soon as it gets broadcasted by dispatch is when I'm aware of the call.

BILBAO: Okay. Around what time of day do you think that was?

SANCHEZ: The call came out at 1343.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And so, you were aware of that as soon as it was aired to you guys, okay. And where were you in relation to the AM PM, like distance wise, if you know, now, I know this isn't your normal city, but...

SANCHEZ: I would say maybe like, two miles away.

BILBAO: About two miles away? Okay. And then you mentioned going and handling that 32X ALPR--

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: --call, right? By the time that Sergeant Andersen broadcasted shots fired, and you mentioned that you did that U turn.

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: Where were you in relation to the AM PM, again like distance wise?

SANCHEZ: I was probably at the same spot. I hadn't moved much. I was probably like, still two miles away.

BILBAO: About two miles? Okay. And so timewise would you say it was maybe like a minute later, five minutes later from the original call from when they put out the man gun call...

SANCHEZ: To when Andersen arrived on scene?

BILBAO: Mm-hmm.

SANCHEZ: From when he arrived on scene to when he broadcasted shots fired, I want to say it was like 30 seconds.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: Because like I said, when he first showed up on scene, he was still trying to get information to make sure he was going to approach the right vehicle. So, he had been there for a few seconds and then moments later it was when he broadcasted that he had shots fired.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Did he broadcast anything other than shots fired?

SANCHEZ: I didn't hear him say that he was hit or anything. All I heard was shots fired.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And you mentioned that you make your way to the AM PM, and you enter into that parking lot. By the time that you parked, and you stepped out of your vehicle, you said that all you saw was the shattered glass, right? Did you see anybody else standing outside in that parking lot, or anywhere surrounding the AM PM?

SANCHEZ: No. I honestly had tunnel vision on first getting to my partner and figuring out what's going on inside the store because all I saw was the shattered glass. But I don't recall seeing anybody standing by like the pumps or outside of the gas station.

BILBAO: Okay. Or what about what anything that you might have heard?

SANCHEZ: No, I didn't. I didn't hear anything.

BILBAO: Okay. Did you hear any gunshots at any time on from the time that you were driving to the AM PM or by the time that you arrived, did you hear gunshots at any time?

SANCHEZ: No.

BILBAO: Okay. As you were driving, were your windows up or down?

SANCHEZ: I kept them up.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And so, you laid out really well where the suspect was laying and where Sergeant Andersen was, and that they were close to each other. Could you see by the time that you approached, could you see where Sergeant Andersen was hit?

SANCHEZ: Yes. I asked him where he was hit, and I looked down. I took my eyes off the suspect, looked down at Andersen and I could see he had a gunshot on his thigh, and I could see like, a hole with like fat coming out of it and like fluid.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And that's the only...

SANCHEZ: Yeah, that's the only—

BILBAO: Injury you saw?

SANCHEZ: Injury that I saw.

BILBAO: Okay.

BILBAO: All right. And in regards to the suspect, while he was lying on his back, you mentioned seeing the blood around his head and on his upper chest.

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: When you took a look at him there, you mentioned looking for like a rise and fall.

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: Looking to see if he's breathing.

SANCHEZ: Yeah, to see—

BILBAO: [inaudible] Was he moving at all his hands, his feet, his limbs?

SANCHEZ: No, his hands were still like, as if he just fell on his back and stayed in that position. His left arm wasn't moving at all. It was kind of like it was-- his elbow was bent; his wrist was bent in towards like his left pec. And he just kind of lay there as I kept my eyes on him.

BILBAO: Okay. Did you hear him like moan or groan or say anything at all?

SANCHEZ: I didn't hear any sounds—

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: --coming from him.

BILBAO: Okay. And when you approached him directly, you mentioned that you took a hold of, I believe you said, his left wrist.

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: To kind of pull him out of that doorway.

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: And to give yourself a little bit of distance between yourself was that so you could look inside the store and verify if there was anybody else.

SANCHEZ: So, I did it more, again, training because we're taught to not stand in front of windows. So, I pull him away from the window to handcuff the suspect and continue on with whatever else needed to be done.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. So, the first time that you saw his gun, was after you had already pulled him around and turned him over to handcuff him and that's when you saw his gun?

SANCHEZ: Correct.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: When I first arrived on scene, I didn't see the suspect's gun, up until I dragged him and then turned him on to his stomach. That's and then that's when I saw that the firearm was laying to his right side.

BILBAO: Okay. And once you kind of flipped him over onto his belly and placed him in handcuffs, did you see any rise and fall? You know, from his back where you can see if he was breathing or not?

SANCHEZ: No, I just continue to see pools of blood in his left shoulder blade area. And he had a hole in it just his whole-- the whole back was wet with blood. He had obviously lost a large amount of blood which confirmed again that he had no-- that there's nothing that I could have done to save his life.

BILBAO: Okay. Have you ever responded to a call like this? Well, maybe not like this but a call where somebody has been struck by gunfire?

SANCHEZ: No, I personally haven't responded to that.

BILBAO: Okay. So, on a or any sort of like major accident where somebody has lost a lot of blood and they're not breathing. Have you responded to a call like that before?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Okay. So, to you in your experience you saw he wasn't-- there was no rise and fall this chest, he had lost a lot of blood.

SANCHEZ: Mm-hmm.

BILBAO: Did you consider doing CPR or checking for a pulse at that time?

SANCHEZ: No, he had obvious signs of death. I didn't really see-- there's nothing I could have done to save his life. Unfortunately, he was already passed.

BILBAO: Did you already know that medical aid was on its way?

SANCHEZ: I don't recall if someone requested medical aid, but I'm assuming they were staged nearby.

BILBAO: Okay. So, once you've placed him now in handcuffs, you see this gun next to him. You said that you picked up the gun. Did you pick it up just with your bare hands? Or...

SANCHEZ: Yeah, I did. I just picked it up with my bare hands and didn't have any gloves on or anything.

BILBAO: Okay. And you said you gave it to an unknown deputy?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Is that possibly because this isn't your normal city to be working in—

SANCHEZ: It's just—

BILBAO: --and a lot of different people responded?

SANCHEZ: It's just a lot of things going on. My concern is obviously, my attention was to the suspect and Andersen. I just picked the gun up briefly and I didn't even look at who I handed it to. But obviously, I knew it was a deputy because I saw the green pants and I just handed it off to him and that was the end of my contact with the gun.

BILBAO: Okay. And so, you don't know where it went from there?

SANCHEZ: Yeah, no.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And because in these sorts of scenes, we have a lot of people responding and helping, and you were trying to maintain your focus on the suspect, who will just call him Cardenas from here on out. How long after you arrived there at the scene, and you began doing everything that you just explained to detain Cardenas. How long until the next deputy arrived? Who-- I don't know if it was that blonde deputy, or if it was somebody else?

SANCHEZ: The first deputy that I remember arriving on scene was the one that I handed the gun to.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: After I handcuffed Cardenas--

BILBAO: Or just the next deputy, the next help that arrived, how long would you say?

SANCHEZ: Honestly it felt like two minutes.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: Before someone else showed up.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And did at some point medical aid arrive, and help Cardenas at any point?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: What did you see happen there?

SANCHEZ: I stepped out of the way. They showed up with their equipment. I don't really know as far as, like part of their procedure as to what they did but they pronounced him. I don't know who called him, but I just heard them say it out loud that he had passed away.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Can we go over what was in his pockets again, when you conducted that search?

SANCHEZ: Yeah, in his left front pocket, he had two black magazines, and they were both fully loaded to capacity. And I-- once I took those items out of his left pocket, I just left them on a concrete laying to his left. And then his wallet, I want to say was located in his rear pant, in his right rear pant pocket. And then I removed some other items from his front right pocket. I believe it was his cell phone.

BILBAO: Okay. So, while all this is going on, was there anybody left still inside the AM PM?

SANCHEZ: To my knowledge, no. That's why I had sent that blonde deputy inside the store to see if there's any bystanders that had been shot or any additional suspects. I asked her to go clear the store.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. At one point on your body worn recording, you talk about getting Cardenas, you say something to the effect of let's get him out of here. What were you meaning?

SANCHEZ: So, my intent or my thought process on that was I wanted to place him in the backseat of a patrol vehicle just to have him out of public view. Because I've responded to multiple fatal accidents where people will take their phones out and kind of have no respect for the deceased. So that's what my intentions were when I said let's get him out of here. Was to kind of just get him out of public view because obviously if there's somebody that's deceased, somebody is going to take their phone out, it's going to make more spectators.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: For the crime scene.

BILBAO: At any point did you move your patrol unit from where you originally parked up a little bit closer towards the doors?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: And what was the purpose for that?

SANCHEZ: So, I moved my patrol vehicle to-- one of the deputies asked any deputy to move their car because I think their thought process was to place Andersen in the backseat of a unit to get him to the hospital, because I don't think they had seen the ambulance arrive to the location. So, I moved my patrol vehicle directly in front of the store and I left it there.

BILBAO: Okay. You mentioned that Andersen had tourniquets?

SANCHEZ: Yes.

BILBAO: Did you-- was that on both legs or just one leg?

SANCHEZ: I want to say I saw them on both his legs because both his legs were really stiff. Like I said he couldn't stand up on his own. I had to kind of like put my boots against his right leg to kind of help him onto his feet.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Do you know who placed those tourniquets?

SANCHEZ: No.

BILBAO: Or who was providing any sort of medical aid for Sergeant Anderson prior to the fire department or AMR showing up?

SANCHEZ: I couldn't tell you.

BILBAO: Okay. I'm going to show you a map real quick. Within that map it should, you should be able to see the AM PM there. Does that look familiar?

SANCHEZ: Yeah.

BILBAO: Okay. If you wouldn't mind, just draw a little rectangle where you believe that you parked your unit when you first arrived. Okay, and then just an X where you saw the suspect lying and an X where you-- an O where you saw Anderson sitting? Okay. Have you ever seen Cardenas before? Had any contact with him before?

SANCHEZ: No.

BILBAO: He didn't look familiar to you?

SANCHEZ: No.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Does that look to be the person that you saw there that day? Or does he not look familiar?

SANCHEZ: The hairstyle kind of looks a little different but his build looks like the guy that I saw.

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: Maybe.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. And then I'm going to show you another photograph, and I may as well-- I'll label this this one photograph number three. Does that firearm look familiar?

SANCHEZ: Yep.

BILBAO: And whose would that have been?

SANCHEZ: That's the suspect's handgun—

BILBAO: Okay.

SANCHEZ: --with a clear magazine.

BILBAO: Okay. And the one that you described to me that you saw on the ground, you picked up and you gave it to another deputy to handle, is that right?

SANCHEZ: Correct.

BILBAO: Okay. Okay, all right. We'll just take Cardena's photo as number two, and the map is number one. All right. And then… if you want to go ahead and then I'll get mine.

PASLAK: Couple quick questions.

SANCHEZ: Yeah.

PASLAK: When the initial man gun call was aired, do you remember any of the information provided by dispatch at all? Reference to the call?

SANCHEZ: All I remember was that there wasn't that --they didn't really-- I think there was like some confusion on who the reporting party was. But the reporting party was saying that there was a man outside with a gun in the vehicle. And that as far as like the call, that's all we had or all I remember hearing at that time.

PASLAK: Were you aware of a suspect description prior to you arriving at the AM PM?

SANCHEZ: No.

PASLAK: How long did it take you to drive from Bear Valley, Mariposa, were you did the U turn and arrived at AM PM?

SANCHEZ: I would say maybe like, two minutes.

PASLAK: After handcuffing Cardenas, was there any civilians or employees kind of in the area that you were concerned with being close to you or around you?

SANCHEZ: So, there was one employee that walked up to me, and she was yelling. Or she was telling me that she was mad at me, and I was kind of telling her to back up because obviously it's still an active crime scene. I didn't want to introduce any people or anything into our crime scene.

PASLAK: Okay. And having people close by like that, would that have played into your decision to try and secure the handgun in versus leaving it laying there?

SANCHEZ: Yeah, absolutely.

PASLAK: Okay. And then I know you said you received an injury to your left hand. Did you receive any medical treatment for that?

SANCHEZ: Yes, I did.

PASLAK: What was that?

SANCHEZ: I got--I took myself to [redacted] in Apple Valley and they drew my blood to see if I had any or if I was exposed to any blood borne pathogens.

PASLAK: And as of this time right now, do you know of any information related to that?

SANCHEZ: Yeah, I actually got my results back and I came back negative for everything I was screened for.

PASLAK: Okay.

BILBAO: Talk to me a little bit about your stress levels. When you heard the original--when the original call came out and then it escalated, and you heard shots fired?

SANCHEZ: Well, I mean, it's never easy responding to a shots fired call, you know, because at this point, I mean, there's only limited information that you have when you're responding to the call. I didn't hear Andersen give an update or anything. So, my mind is kind of racing thinking like is my partner down? Is the suspect down? Like how many people do we have? Like everything's unfolding.

So obviously, it's a high stress situation. I've responded to other officer involved shootings, but this one was definitely one that kind of caught me by surprise, because on the other ones that I've assisted with, it's like, I'm usually the-- I'm one of the like, the last people to show up on scene and this time, I was the first person to show up on scene. So, it was something—a high stress situation.

BILBAO: Okay. All right. Do you feel like you had adequate resources by the time you arrived there. Pretty well it was done, but as you mentioned, you have the public and all of the afterwork to do. Do you feel like you had adequate resources?

SANCHEZ: Yeah. Everybody did a good job that day, they all-- we all worked as a team, you know, like everybody kind of gave-- assigned themselves a job and stuck to it. So, I think everybody did well.

BILBAO: Okay, great. I'm going to go ahead and take a quick break. Make sure that there's nothing else we need and then we'll come back.

SANCHEZ: Sounds good.

BILBAO: Taking a break at 1350.

All right, we're back on tape at 1352 hours and we're going to be ending recording. Thank you.

Since 2016, [redacted] worked at AM/PM at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville. On Friday, December 1, 2023, from 0500 through 1530 hours, [redacted] worked as the [redacted] with [redacted] and [redacted]. At approximately 1340 hours, [redacted] told [redacted] a female, later identified by investigators as [redacted] entered the store and asked [redacted] to call 9-1-1. [redacted] told [redacted] a male, later identified by investigators as Jorge Cardenas, threatened her with a gun. [redacted] told [redacted] was barricaded in the restroom and would not come out until law enforcement arrived at the scene. [redacted] explained Cardenas was inside of a parked vehicle, later identified as a silver 2019 Nissan Altima, California license plate number [redacted]. [redacted] used AM/PM's exterior camera system and observed Cardenas parked near the store's front door and was seated in the Altima's driver seat.

[redacted] walked to the register to call 9-1-1 from the store phone. According to [redacted] the phone did not work appropriately, so she hung up and called back using her personal cellphone. [redacted] told dispatch Cardenas threatened [redacted] with a gun and was seated in a silver Nissan Altima outside of AM/PM. [redacted] remained on the phone with dispatch as she walked through the store to watch Cardenas through the glass front doors. [redacted] asked [redacted] to watch Cardenas and to contact her if he tried to enter the store. [redacted] exited the restroom, walked to the register, then returned to the restroom. [redacted] did not know why [redacted] exited the restroom. [redacted] did not recognize [redacted] or Cardenas.

A marked sheriff's patrol vehicle parked behind Cardenas' Altima. According to [redacted], Cardenas exited his Altima, pulled a gun out of his front right pants pocket and rushed to AM/PM's front doors. A uniformed deputy, later identified by investigators as Sergeant Shane Andersen, exited his patrol vehicle and ran behind Cardenas. [redacted] remained on the phone with dispatch as she stood inside the store near the coffee station. Cardenas pulled the front door open, entered the store, and pushed the door shut as Andersen pursued him. [redacted] estimated there were six customers inside the store. Cardenas quickly turned and faced Andersen. [redacted] did not know if the front doors were open or closed. Cardenas raised his gun, pointed it at Andersen, and fired numerous gunshots without hesitation. [redacted] stood approximately 15 feet away from Cardenas as he fired at Andersen. [redacted] did not see Andersen fire his gun and did not know if he was struck by gunfire.

Cardenas told [redacted] he would wait for her in his vehicle and [redacted] rushed to the restroom. [redacted] watched Cardenas exit the store and enter a grey sedan, later identified as a silver 2019 Nissan Altima, California license plate number [redacted]. [redacted] did not recognize [redacted] or Cardenas.

[redacted] walked to AM/PM's back office and told [redacted] to call 9-1-1 because [redacted] was barricaded in the restroom. [redacted] explained Cardenas threatened [redacted] with a gun and was seated in the Altima in front of the store. [redacted] returned to the front register and continued to help customers. Approximately five minutes later, [redacted] exited the restroom and contacted [redacted] at the register. [redacted] reiterated Cardenas had a gun and would come back into the store to look for her. [redacted] told [redacted] they called 9-1-1 and [redacted] returned to the restroom. [redacted] helped customers as she tried to watch Cardenas through the glass front doors as he sat inside his Altima. According to [redacted] she tried to look inconspicuous as she watched Cardenas because she was scared Cardenas would know they called 9-1-1.

A few minutes after [redacted] returned to the restroom, [redacted] heard the front door chime which indicated a person entered the store. [redacted] saw Cardenas rush into the store, turn to face the front doors, and point a black handgun at the front doors. [redacted] estimated Cardenas was approximately six feet away from her. [redacted] did not know who Cardenas pointed his gun at and she did not see law enforcement officers arrive at the scene. Cardenas held his gun with a two-handed grip and fired approximately four gunshots at the front door. According to [redacted], she knew Cardenas fired his gun because she saw the recoil of his gun and heard the gunshots. [redacted] did not hear any gunshots before she saw Cardenas fire his gun.

[redacted] ducked down and used the register's counter to avoid being struck by gunfire. [redacted] heard continuous gunfire, but she did not know how many gunshots she heard. According to [redacted] she called [redacted] on her cellphone as she hid behind the counter because she feared she would not survive. [redacted] estimated there were approximately six customers inside the store at the time of the shooting. A few seconds later, the gunfire stopped and [redacted] ran from the register to the store's rear door. [redacted] did not look at the front doors or Cardenas as she rushed out of the store. As [redacted] ran through the rear door, she heard gunfire, but she did not know how many additional gunshots she heard. [redacted] never saw who Cardenas shot at and did not see anyone shoot at Cardenas.

[redacted] waited behind the AM/PM with [redacted] and the customers. The gunfire stopped and [redacted] heard sirens near the store. WITNESS INTERVIEW: [redacted]

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1818 hours, I conducted an interview with [redacted] in Interview Room 3 at the Victorville Police Station located at 14200 Amargosa Road, in Victorville. The interview was audio recorded with my digital recorder and a copy was later placed into evidence. The following is a summary of [redacted] recorded statements.

[redacted] verified he recognized the location depicted in the photograph as where the lethal force encounter (LFE) occurred. During the remainder of the interview, [redacted] drew on and referenced the map to provide details about his statements. The photograph was saved into the digital case file and a copy was attached to the end of this narrative.

On Friday, December 1, 2023, sometime between 1345 hours and 1400 hours, [redacted] arrived at the AM/PM Gas Station located at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville [redacted] drove his black Acura sedan, with California license plate [redacted], and parked at fuel pump 1. [redacted] exited his vehicle and walked towards the front entrance of the gas station. [redacted] wore a black hooded sweatshirt, grey sweatpants, and a ballcap. Investigators later confirmed [redacted] was captured on Andersen's body worn camera.

A deputy, later identified as San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBCSD) Sergeant Shane Andersen, arrived and parked behind a grey sedan parked on the east side of the convenience store, near the front entrance. The grey sedan had tinted windows. [redacted] could not see if anyone was seated inside. Investigators later determined the grey sedan was occupied by Jorge Cardenas. Andersen arrived in a marked sheriff's patrol unit equipped with emergency lights and police decals. Andersen wore a sheriff's uniform comprised of a green shirt and tan pants. [redacted] believed there was no possibility anyone would not believe Andersen was a police officer.

Andersen sat in his patrol vehicle and spoke on his police radio while [redacted] walked towards the convenience store. Andersen exited his police vehicle and walked towards Cardenas' vehicle. Cardenas exited his vehicle immediately after Andersen exited his. [redacted] described Cardenas as a "chubby" Hispanic male, in his [redacted] who wore a black shirt and blue jeans. Cardenas walked quickly towards the front entrance of the convenience store. Cardenas walked with his hands near his front waistband and his back toward Andersen. Andersen followed Cardenas and yelled at him to stop at least three to four times. [redacted] believed there was no way Cardenas did not hear Andersen because of how loud he spoke.

Cardenas approached the front entrance of the convenience store as Andersen continued to follow. Andersen reached toward Cardenas with his left arm as Cardenas walked through the front doors. Cardenas walked about one to two feet through the front entrance while Andersen remained on the exterior side of the doorway. Cardenas turned to his left and produced a firearm. [redacted] did not see where Cardenas retrieved the firearm from. Cardenas' firearm was a Glock style handgun with an extended magazine that protruded past the hand grip.

Cardenas pointed the firearm directly at Andersen's head. Andersen quickly unholstered his firearm and pointed it at Cardenas. [redacted] dove to the ground behind Cardenas' vehicle when he saw both firearms to avoid being struck by gunfire. [redacted] heard about eight to nine consecutive gunshots as soon as he fell to the ground. [redacted] was [redacted] and used a [redacted] was forced to crawl away towards cover to avoid gunfire. [redacted] did not observe Cardenas and Andersen exchange gunfire.

[redacted] was a customer who stood in the parking lot when the LFE occurred. When the gunfire stopped, [redacted] ran to [redacted] and assisted him off the ground. [redacted] looked toward the front entrance and observed Cardenas laid on the ground directly outside the front doors. Cardenas had blood on his face and torso. [redacted] avoided looking too closely and did not see what injuries Cardenas had. Andersen sat against a glass perimeter wall on the north side of the convenience store entrance. The glass on the front entrance doors was shattered. [redacted] did not observe injuries on Andersen but believed he was injured because he sat on the floor with his legs hung out in front of him.

Andersen fired at Cardenas two more times approximately 15 seconds after the first series of gunfire. [redacted] believed Andersen fired again because Cardenas continued to move. [redacted] returned to his vehicle while additional deputies responded. The first assisting deputy, who investigators later identified as Deputy Isaac Sanchez, arrived and contacted Cardenas. Sanchez handcuffed Cardenas and removed a handgun from his person. Sanchez gave Cardenas' handgun to another deputy and assessed Andersen for injuries. Emergency medical personnel arrived two to three minutes after the gunfire. Medical care personnel applied health monitors on Cardenas although [redacted] believed he was deceased.

[redacted] vehicle remained parked at AM/PM during the crime scene investigation. I contacted [redacted] at the completion of the investigation and released his vehicle back to him. Anchondo had no additional information to provide and I ended the interview with him at 1840 hours.

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1846 hours, I conducted an interview with [redacted] in Interview Room 3 at the Victorville Police Station located at 14200 Amargosa Road, in Victorville. The interview was audio recorded with my digital recorder and a copy was later placed into evidence. During the remainder of the interview, [redacted] drew on and referenced the map to provide details about his statements. The photograph was saved into the digital case file and a copy was attached to the end of this narrative.

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at an unknown time in the afternoon, [redacted] arrived at the AM/PM Gas Station located at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville [redacted] drove a rental vehicle which was a silver Nissan Altima sedan. [redacted] parked at fuel pump 3, located on the south-east corner of the fuel stations. [redacted] entered the convenience store to pay for his fuel. [redacted] did not pump all the fuel he paid for and returned to the convenience store for a refund. [redacted] believed the female cashier who refunded him was nervous.

After he received his refund, [redacted] exited the store and observed another grey Nissan Altima parked near the front entrance. This vehicle was later identified by investigators as belonging to Jorge Cardenas. Cardenas' Altima was parked in the first stall on the south-east corner of the convenience store and faced west. [redacted] walked toward his car and observed SBCSD Sergeant Shane Andersen arrive at AM/PM. Andersen arrived through the east driveway apron of the parking lot and drove a marked sheriff's patrol vehicle. Andersen's patrol vehicle was a white Ford Explorer and was marked with multiple police decals.

[redacted] stood near the rear driver side door of Cardenas' Altima because he believed Andersen would drive in front of him, west through parking lot. Instead, Andersen parked behind Cardenas' Altima and [redacted] returned to his vehicle. Andersen spoke on his police radio and exited his vehicle. Andersen wore a sheriff's uniform that consisted of a khaki shirt and green pants. Cardenas exited his Altima as Andersen walked towards him. Cardenas walked towards the convenience store with his hands near his front waistband. [redacted] described Cardenas as a tall Hispanic male, about 27 years old, weighed 230 pounds, and wore a black sweatshirt.

Andersen followed Cardenas and told him he needed to talk to him. Cardenas ignored Andersen and walked away from him. Andersen shouted at Cardenas two to three times for him to stop. Andersen followed quickly behind Cardenas as Cardenas approached the front entrance of the convenience store. Andersen attempted to grab Cardenas before he entered. Cardenas entered the store and closed the doors behind him. Andersen remained on the exterior side of the front entrance.

Cardenas shot at Andersen from inside the store and the front glass doors shattered. Andersen returned gunfire at Cardenas and fell to the ground. [redacted] heard about six gunshots between Cardenas and Andersen. [redacted] believed there was a difference in sound between both sets of gunshots. Andersen sat up against a glass perimeter wall on the north side of the convenience store entrance. Andersen still had his firearm in his hands. Cardenas exited the convenience store and fell to the ground directly outside the front entrance. Andersen fired at Cardenas six to eight more times. [redacted] believed Cardenas was deceased when he fell to the ground. [redacted] did not see where Cardenas was struck.

During the exchange of gunfire, a customer in the parking lot fell to the ground. That customer was later identified as [redacted]. Jacobo believed [redacted] was shot and ran to help him. [redacted] helped [redacted] from the ground and escorted him to safety. [redacted] saw Andersen bled from his lower right leg. [redacted] wanted to help Andersen but feared Andersen would confuse him as someone associated with Cardenas. [redacted] remained near his vehicle until additional deputies arrived.

Two to three minutes after the gunshots were fired, Deputy Isaac Sanchez arrived. Sanchez pulled Cardenas away from the front entrance. Sanchez rolled Cardenas over and handcuffed him. The deputies who arrived after Sanchez ran to Andersen and assessed him for injuries. About five minutes after the gunshots, emergency medical personnel arrived and treated Andersen. [redacted] did not see if any medical aid was performed on Cardenas.

[redacted] believed the police were already called when he initially entered the store. [redacted] did not know any facts that led to the contact between Cardenas and Andersen. [redacted] felt Andersen did nothing wrong and that the LFE was a result of Cardenas' actions. [redacted] never observed Cardenas' firearm. [redacted] believed Cardenas concealed his firearm in his pants because of how he exited his vehicle with his hands in his waistband. [redacted] had no additional information to provide about the incident and I ended the interview with him at approximately 1912 hours.

A deputy, later identified as San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBCSD) Sergeant Shane Andersen, arrived at AM/PM through the north-east corner entrance of the parking lot. WITNESS INTERVIEW CONTINUED [redacted]

[redacted] heard continuous gunshots as he drove away. [redacted] dove over [redacted] who sat in the front passenger seat, to protect her from the gunfire. [redacted] heard one of the first gunshots strike his vehicle. [redacted] felt his vehicle move when it was struck. [redacted] later verified the bottom of his driver's door was struck by gunfire.

[redacted] estimated he heard 15 to 20 initial gunshots which had two different distinct sounds. [redacted] assumed the gunshots he heard were a combination of Cardenas and Andersen's fired rounds. [redacted] believed the first six to eight gunshots were fired by Cardenas from inside the store because they sounded far away. After the first six to eight gunshots, [redacted] heard rapid, overlapping gunshots. [redacted] believed that occurred when Cardenas and Andersen simultaneously fired at one another.

After a brief pause, [redacted] heard four additional gunshots. In total, [redacted] estimated a total of 20 to 30 gunshots were fired between Cardenas and Andersen. When the gunfire stopped, [redacted] looked towards the convenience store entrance. Andersen sat against a glass perimeter wall on the north side of the convenience store entrance. The glass on the front entrance doors was shattered [redacted] did not observe injuries on Andersen but believed he was injured because he held his left leg. That was the first time [redacted] saw Andersen. [redacted] wanted to help Andersen, but [redacted] asked him to stay in the vehicle. Andersen wore a sheriff's uniform comprised of a brown shirt and matching pants. Andersen's left sleeve had a sheriff's patch and sergeant stripes. [redacted] believed there was no possibility anyone would not believe Andersen was a police officer.

Cardenas laid on the ground at the exterior entrance of the convenience store. The first assisting deputy, who investigators later identified as Deputy Isaac Sanchez, arrived about one minute after the gunfire stopped. Sanchez ran to Cardenas, rolled him over, and handcuffed him. Other deputies who responded rendered medical aid to Andersen. [redacted] did not see Andersen's injuries.

Emergency medical personnel arrived less than five minutes after the gunfire. Medical care personnel treated Cardenas although [redacted] believed he was deceased. When medical personnel lifted Cardenas' shirt, Larson observed about five gunshot wounds on his torso [redacted] also observed multiple gunshot wounds on Cardenas' head.

[redacted] explained [redacted] was asleep before the incident and did not observe the LFE. [redacted] vehicle remained parked at AM/PM during the crime scene investigation. WITNESS INTERVIEW: [redacted]

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1820 hours, I interviewed [redacted] inside an interview room at the Victorville Sheriff's Station, located at 14200 Amargosa Road, in Victorville. I used my department issued digital recorder to record the interview and I later placed the audio recording into the case file. The following is a summary of my interview with [redacted]

[redacted] worked for [redacted] finished work and drove to the AM/PM in his red Chevrolet Silverado and parked at the gas pumps closest to Bear Valley Road. [redacted] needed to get gas and wanted to buy a drink before he drove home to [redacted]. As [redacted] walked toward the front of AM/PM, he observed a marked San Bernardino County Sheriff's patrol vehicle enter the parking lot. [redacted] stated the patrol vehicle drove normally and did not have any emergency lights or sirens activated.

[redacted] entered AM/PM and got a Snickers candy bar and looked at drink selections. [redacted] heard the store clerk state, "The cops are on their way already." [redacted] thought that was weird because he did not see anything out of the ordinary. [redacted] continued to look for a drink and heard a loud gunshot he believed came from inside of the store. [redacted] dropped to the floor and laid on his stomach with his head down [redacted] was familiar with guns and knew it was a gunshot he heard.

[redacted] estimated he heard approximately 10 gunshots before it went silent inside the store. [redacted] moved his body forward and looked around a display shelf and observed a male, later identified as Jorge Cardenas, held a gun inside the store and pointed the gun toward the front doors of AM/PM. Cardenas fired the gun approximately seven to eight more times and [redacted] laid back down on the ground.

[redacted] was unable to describe Cardenas due to how fast everything happened [redacted] looked toward the back of AM/PM and saw the rear door was open. [redacted] got off the floor and ran for the door to exit AM/PM. [redacted] ran north through the parking lot and toward where he was doing demolition work. [redacted] walked back to AM/PM and observed Cardenas on the ground, handcuffed and bloody. Additional deputies surrounded a deputy on the ground, later identified as Sergeant Shane Andersen. [redacted] could not see what deputies did and walked to his truck. [redacted] was contacted by an unknown deputy at his vehicle and asked to stay at the scene so he could be interviewed by detectives.

[redacted] was unable to provide any additional information and I concluded my interview with him.

WITNESS INTERVIEW: [redacted]

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1834 hours, I interviewed [redacted] inside an interview room at the Victorville Sheriff's Station, located at 14200 Amargosa Road, in Victorville. I used my department issued digital recorder to record the interview and I later placed the audio recording into the case file. The following is a summary of my interview with [redacted]

[redacted] took [redacted] to [redacted] and dropped her off. [redacted] drove to AM/PM located at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville, and arrived at approximately 1345 hours. [redacted] went inside of AM/PM and was at the counter to pay for his Monster Energy drink. [redacted] observed the store manager on the telephone behind the counter. The manager stated on the phone, "She is afraid to come in, because if there are no customers in here, he may come in and get her." The manager looked over the counter into the AM/PM parking lot and told the unknown person on the telephone that the male was still there.

[redacted] looked out of AM/PM and observed a male, later identified as Jorge Cardenas, seated inside of a gray sedan in the parking lot. The vehicle was parked north of the front doors in the first spot. [redacted] vehicle, a white Kia Soul, was parked south of the front door across from Cardenas. [redacted] described Cardenas as a larger Hispanic male adult with dark hair. [redacted] entered his Kia and watched Cardenas. Cardenas appeared to speak with a male and female near the vehicle next to him. The unknown female stood at the passenger side of her vehicle and appeared to talk to Cardenas over the hood.

[redacted] sat in his Kia and drank his Monster. [redacted] observed a marked San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBCSD) patrol vehicle pull into the parking lot and park behind Cardenas' vehicle. [redacted] believed he saw the unknown female tell Cardenas the cops were there. Cardenas looked in his rear-view mirror at the deputy. Cardenas exited his vehicle and walked toward AM/PM. The deputy, later identified as Sergeant Shane Andersen, exited his patrol vehicle and gave Cardenas an unknown command. Cardenas ignored Andersen and walked toward the front doors of AM/PM. Andersen followed Cardenas and was right behind him. [redacted] saw Cardenas and Andersen enter the front of AM/PM.

A second later Andersen retreated out of AM/PM toward the parking lot with his firearm in his hand as he gave commands. [redacted] could not see Cardenas. [redacted] stated Andersen and Cardenas exchanged gunfire. [redacted] knew Andersen fired his handgun due to the muzzle flash and he knew Cardenas fired because he saw glass blowing out from inside of AM/PM toward the parking lot. Uninvolved civilians ran away from AM/PM in the parking lot. [redacted] was unsure how many gunshots were fired from inside of AM/PM, but estimated Andersen fired approximately five times while standing in front of AM/PM.

Andersen moved north of the front doors to AM/PM and went down to a kneeling position in front of a glass partition. [redacted] heard approximately five more gunshots and was unsure where they came from. Suddenly Cardenas exited AM/PM and fired at Andersen as he was down on the ground. [redacted] stated Cardenas was within two feet of Andersen while he fired. Andersen returned fire approximately five times and [redacted] observed Cardenas fall to the ground in front of the doors to AM/PM.

As Cardenas fell to the ground, Andersen reloaded his magazine. Andersen yelled unknown commands at Cardenas who moved around on the ground. Andersen fired an additional three gunshots. Andersen froze and did not move but he held his firearm in his hands. [redacted] feared that Andersen was deceased. Cardenas was on his back in front of the doors and did not move. [redacted] heard sirens coming from a distance. The vehicle parked next to Cardenas' car in the parking lot left the area as soon as the shooting stopped.

Additional deputies arrived on scene. The first deputy on scene pointed his handgun at Cardenas, the second deputy assisted Andersen, and the third deputy grabbed Cardenas and pulled him away from the front doors of AM/PM. A deputy turned Cardenas around and handcuffed him to the rear. [redacted] backed his Kia out of the parking stall and moved it out of the way. As deputies treated Andersen, [redacted] saw Andersen move and knew he was hit by gunfire because he did not move right. [redacted] could not see where Andersen was hit and did not see any blood.

Victorville City Fire Department (VCFD) personnel arrived on scene and parked in front of [redacted] vehicle, and he could not see anything else. [redacted] was later contacted by deputies and transported to the Victorville Sheriff Station for an interview.

ASSIGNMENT/ARRIVAL:

On Friday, December 1st, 2023, from 1200 to 0330 hours, I was assigned to patrol in the city of Victorville. At around 1346 hours, deputies were dispatched to a man with a gun at 13660 Bear Valley Road. The reporting party advised a female, later identified at [redacted] asked the reporting party to call law enforcement because a male, later identified as Jorge Cardenas, was in the parking lot with a gun and threatened [redacted] Cardenas drove a silver Nissan Altima.

While responding to the call for service, I heard Sergeant S. Andersen, who was on scene say over the radio, "Shots fired." I activated my overhead lights and siren and drove from Bear Valley Road and Mariposa Road. I arrived on scene at about 1352 hours.

DEPUTY OBSERVATIONS:

The business entrance was on the southeast side of the building. When I arrived on scene, I saw shattered glass and blood on the concrete in front of the business entrance. I saw Cardenas approximately two feet south of the entrance doors lying on his stomach. Cardenas had blood coming from his head. Deputy I. Sanchez handcuffed Cardenas with his hands to the rear. Andersen sat with his back against the glass and legs straight out on the concrete. Andersen sat on the right side of the entrance doors. Sergeant S. Demuri assisted Andersen with medical attention.

SAFTEY SWEEP:

I entered the business to conduct a security sweep and confirm if there were any additional victims. While inside the business, I announced myself by saying, "Sheriff's Department." I located [redacted] inside the bathroom. I escorted [redacted] out of the business into the parking lot. I returned inside the business to continue my security sweep. I located a female, later identified as [redacted], in the rear section of the store. I escorted [redacted] out of the location into the parking lot. I did not locate anyone else inside the business.

INVOLVED PARTY INTERVIEW: (Bailon, Carmen)

The following is a summary of my recorded conversation with [redacted] in the parking lot of the business.

[redacted] was the [redacted] at the ARCO Gas Station. While standing outside, [redacted] pointed at [redacted] who was also standing outside and said, "She told me she needed help." [redacted] walked into the store and mouthed to [redacted] she needed help. [redacted] told [redacted], "He has a gun, he has a gun." [redacted] told [redacted] to go inside the restroom and wait there.

Cardenas was inside the store and told [redacted] it was time to leave. [redacted] told Cardenas [redacted] was going to use the restroom. This was the only conversation [redacted] had with Cardenas. Cardenas walked out of the business and waited by the car for [redacted] I asked [redacted] which vehicle Cardenas was waiting by and [redacted] pointed to a silver Nissan Altima bearing California license plate [redacted] he vehicle was parked directly east of the entrance doors.

[redacted] called her boss about the situation, and her boss called law enforcement. [redacted] stepped out of the bathroom, and Cardenas looked for [redacted] from outside the business. [redacted] told [redacted] to stay inside the restroom. [redacted] told [redacted] Cardenas would come inside the business with the gun.

Andersen arrived at the location and [redacted] saw Cardenas walk away from Andersen toward the store doors. As soon as Cardenas came inside the store, Cardenas tried to close the door on the Andersen so he could not enter the business. Cardenas turned toward the door and fired a gun at Andersen. [redacted] saw Cardenas point the firearm at the deputy and the two (Cardenas and Andersen) shot at each other. [redacted] ducked down at the counter when the shooting occurred and did not see the rest of the shooting.

This concluded my conversation with [redacted]

WITNESS INTERVIEW: [redacted]

The following is a summary of my recorded conversation with [redacted] in the parking lot of the business.

[redacted] and Cardenas were in a [redacted] on and off since March 2023. Cardenas lived in [redacted] California. I asked [redacted] who the male on the ground was in relation to her. [redacted] stated it was [redacted]. His first name was Jorge, but [redacted] did not know his last name. She stated it was a long Hispanic name and started with the letter "C." She knew Cardenas' birthday was [redacted] but did not know the year he was born. Cardenas turned [redacted] years old in [redacted] believed Cardenas was very dependent on her and believed an incident like this would have occurred a month ago if she had not remained in contact with him.

[redacted] went out with her friends in Corona the night before this incident. Cardenas was upset with [redacted] and believed she was cheating on him. In the morning, [redacted] drove back to Victorville and was followed by Cardenas. Cardenas spoke to [redacted] several times over the phone. Cardenas threatened her and said he was going to beat her up. [redacted] arrived at her residence, and Cardenas parked his vehicle behind hers. [redacted] did not want to talk to Cardenas at her residence because she did not want problems, so she had her friend drop her off down the street to speak with him. Cardenas followed [redacted] down the street and exited his vehicle. He lifted his shirt showing he had a black firearm in his waistband.

[redacted] would not speak to Cardenas while he had the firearm in his possession and asked for it. Cardenas gave the firearm to [redacted] while they sat inside his vehicle. [redacted] stated she "unracked" the firearm which made it unloaded. [redacted] unloaded all the bullets from the magazine and said there should be bullets on the front passenger floorboard of Cardenas' vehicle. Cardenas and [redacted] had an argument over her being in Corona and struggled over the firearm. When Cardenas took the firearm back from [redacted] the firearm hit [redacted] on the upper right side of her lip. Cardenas placed another magazine inside the firearm.

[redacted] wanted to get ice for her mouth after the firearm hit her and told Cardenas to drive her to the gas station (ARCO). [redacted] and Cardenas entered the gas station together. While Cardenas was in the rear section of the store, [redacted] asked the cashier [redacted] if she could use the restroom. [redacted] told her it was out of service, and [redacted] whispered to [redacted] to call the cops because she was afraid of Cardenas. [redacted] allowed [redacted] inside the restroom. [redacted] walked toward the bathroom and Cardenas returned to the vehicle to wait for her. [redacted] knew she was inside the restroom too long and exited the restroom. [redacted] told [redacted] to go back inside the restroom and deputies were on their way.

[redacted] thought if the police came to the ARCO, it would diffuse the situation she was having with Cardenas. [redacted] was afraid of Cardenas and believed he would have shot her. Cardenas owned multiple firearms and had parked outside of [redacted] residence before and threatened her in the past. [redacted] believed if she had not asked to come to the gas station, he would have killed her and killed himself. [redacted] believed the firearm he had in his possession was a black .45 caliber. [redacted] did not know if the firearm used in the incident was a "ghost" gun or was registered to Cardenas. A ghost gun is a firearm that lacks a serial number and cannot be easily traced. [redacted] knew Cardenas wned several firearms.

[redacted] heard loud noises outside of the restroom and believed Cardenas was banging on the restroom door with the firearm. [redacted] was unaware the loud noises were gunshots and did not know how many loud noises she heard. [redacted] thought Cardenas was at the bathroom door and did not want to open the door. The only reason she opened the door was because she heard me saying, "Sheriff's Department."

This concluded my conversation with [redacted]

EVIDENCE:

At approximately 1520 hours, Deputy M. Valencia handed me the crime scene log he started, and I took over the responsibility. I later booked the crime scene log as evidence at the Big Bear Station.

At approximately 1523 hours, Valencia handed me Cardenas' firearm from the trunk of his patrol vehicle. The firearm was inside a yellow manilla envelope and downloaded. I placed the yellow manilla envelope inside the trunk of my patrol vehicle. At 1734 hours, I handed the firearm to Sheriff's

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT**

ASSIGNMENT/ARRIVAL:

On December 1, 2023, I was assigned as a School Resource Officer at Victor Valley High School, located at 16500 Mojave Drive in the city of Victorville. I wore my San Bernardino County Sheriff's class D uniform and drove a marked Sheriff's patrol vehicle. At about 1351 hours, I assigned myself to assist in a lethal force encounter that occurred at 13660 Bear Valley Road, Victorville. At about 1356 hours, I arrived at Liberty Park, which is located at 13016 Amethyst Road, Victorville. I responded to the park to clear the area for a landing zone for an airship.

DEPUTY OBSERVATIONS/ACTIONS:

At about 1354 hours, Deputies at the lethal force encounter requested a unit to respond to Liberty Park to clear the area for a landing zone for an airship. At about 1356 hours, I arrived at the park and assisted deputies in clearing the park for a landing zone.

At about 1358 hours, California Highway Patrol aviation unit "H80" arrived at Liberty Park and landed their airship. At about 1405 hours, American Medical Response (AMR) arrived with the injured Sheriff's victim.

At about 1417 hours, the Air Rescue unit AR306 arrived and landed at Liberty Pak. I assisted medical personnel in loading the injured Sheriff's victim into the airship, and at about 1421 hours, AR306 departed from the park with the Sheriff's victim. After the airship left the location, I collected information from medical staff who were still remaining at the scene.

At about 1459 hours, I responded to the incident location of the lethal force encounter at the AMPM business located at 13660 Bear Valley Road, Victorville. There were two witnesses, [redacted] and [redacted], at the incident location whose vehicle was struck by a possible bullet. I assisted in transporting [redacted] and [redacted] to the Home2 Suites by Hilton Victorville business located at 12792 Amargosa Road, Victorville, where they received a room for the night.

ASSIGNMENT/ARRIVAL:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, I was assigned to uniformed patrol in a marked sheriff's patrol vehicle in the Town of Apple Valley. While I was at High Desert Detention Center with an arrestee, I was made aware of a deputy who was shot in Victorville. At approximately 1402 hours, I left High Desert Detention Center and assisted with traffic control during the critical incident. I drove with my lights and sirens activated from the High Desert Detention Center until I arrived on scene at approximately 1410 hours.

DEPUTY ACTIONS:

I drove southbound on Amethyst Road and asked deputies who were in front of Liberty Park what assistance they needed. Those deputies advised me to continue southbound towards Bear Valley Road to assist with traffic control. I continued southbound on Amethyst Road and spoke to another set of deputies who advised me they were able to control the traffic in that area and advised me to drive westbound on Bear Valley Road towards Jade Road. I drove to Jade Road and Bear Valley Road and spoke to a Sheriff's Service Specialist who advised he needed help blocking eastbound traffic at Jade Road and Bear Valley Road.

I parked my vehicle on the northside of Bear Valley Road at the intersection with Jade Road stopping eastbound traffic that drove south on Jade Road. I remained blocking traffic for approximately two hours, until public works arrived to set up hard closures at the intersection. After the hard closures were set in place, I left the area and began to handle priority calls for service in the city of Victorville.

ASSIGNMENT / ARRIVAL:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, I was assigned as a uniformed patrol deputy in Victorville. I wore my department approved class A uniform and drove a marked patrol unit. At 1350 hours I assisted with an attempted murder of a peace officer investigation at the AM/PM located on 13360 Bear Valley Road in Victorville. I arrived on scene at 1400 hours.

DEPUTY ACTIONS:

Upon arrival I assisted with clearing the intersection of Bear Valley Road and Amethyst Road. I positioned my unit at an exit to the adjacent shopping center and guided vehicles traveling west on Bear Valley Road to turn around and vacate the area. I instructed responding units to position their vehicles and "shut down" the intersection at various locations across the area. While I directed traffic I was approached by a couple in their vehicle. The couple identified as [redacted] DOB [redacted] and [redacted] DOB [redacted] advised they witnessed the Lethal Force Encounter (LFE) that occurred. I activated my Body Worn Camera (BWC) and conducted a brief interview.

WITNESS INTERVIEW: [redacted] / [redacted]

I spoke with [redacted] and [redacted] at the same time as they were in their vehicle. Both [redacted] and [redacted] claimed they saw the same thing and the same time. The following is a summary of their statements:

[redacted] drove the couples vehicle westbound on Bear Valley Road while [redacted] was in the front passenger seat. As the vehicle was stopped at the red light, [redacted] and [redacted] heard "twenty plus" "gun shots" from the AM/PM located on the northwest corner of the intersection. As the light turned green [redacted] and [redacted] heard several more "gun shots" and observed the scene as they drove by. [redacted] and [redacted] stated they observed a "deputy" "kneeling down" near the entrance of the gas station. [redacted] saw the glass to the front door was damaged and an unknown male was laying "face up." It appeared to [redacted] the male wore a white t-shirt and jeans and was not moving. [redacted] and [redacted] knew the "deputy" was a peace officer by the uniform he wore. [redacted] and [redacted] had the windows to the vehicle up which prevented them from hearing any commands being given.

Supplemental Report

ASSIGNMENT/ ARRIVAL:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at 0600 hours, I was assigned to work traffic enforcement in the City of Victorville. I wore my department approved class A uniform, drove a marked sheriff's patrol unit and was assigned call sign "17X60."

At about 1351 hours, I assisted on a man with a gun call, located at the ARCO gas station at the corner of Bear Valley Road and Amethyst Road, after Sergeant Shane Andersen broadcasted "Shots fired, suspect down." At 1352 hours, an unknown unit advised a deputy was struck by gunfire. At the time it was unclear if it was Sergeant Andersen or another responding deputy who was struck. I immediately asked for Air Rescue to respond and requested Liberty Park on Amethyst to be evacuated for a landing zone for Andersen. I arrived on scene at 1353 hours and ran toward the front of gas station entrance where I observed Andersen sitting upright on the ground, bleeding from his legs, suffering from at least two visible gunshot wounds.

DEPUTY ACTIONS/ OBSERVATIONS:

Once I ran to Andersen, I observed two torniquets applied to both of Andersen's legs. The torniquets were positioned high on his thighs and it appeared the bleeding was controlled. I supported Andersen's back while Sergeant Simon Demuri and I began cutting and taking off Andersen's uniform top and bullet proof vest and assessed his upper body for any more gunshot wounds or injuries. During this time, Demuri and I removed Andersen's gun belt, uniform shirt, and vest and handed those items to Deputy Isaac Sanchez. I yelled for a deputy to bring a unit over to the front of the gas station so we could place Andersen in the rear and transport him to the landing zone because I was unaware of AMR's response time with an ambulance. As I tried to comfort Andersen and coordinating to have a marked unit to the front of the store, I observed the AMR ambulance arrive at the parking lot. Anderson handed me his cell phone and I told him I wouldn't leave his side and I would be going in the helicopter with him. As I was assessing Andersen and dealing with his injuries, I observed the suspect, face down at the entrance of the gas station suffering from numerous gunshot wounds. Once Andersen was placed into the back of the ambulance, I ran back to my unit and waited for AMR to start transporting so I could clear the intersections for the ambulance in order to get Andersen to the landing zone as quickly as possible. We arrived with Andersen at Liberty Park when Air Rescue 306 advised they had a paramedic and nurse on board their helicopter, and they had a 10-minute estimated time to arrive at the park. I stayed with Andersen until Air Rescue arrived and then I was loaded onto the helicopter. Air Rescue Flight crew and paramedics loaded Andersen into the rear of Air Rescue, and we began our transport to [redacted] During the flight, I observed the medical staff on board assessing Andersen's injuries and speaking with him. We landed at [redacted] where Andersen was immediately taken to the emergency department where he was further treated by hospital staff. An unknown staff member provided me with a bag with Andersen's personal items and his badge. I maintained possession of Andersen's personal items until I could place those items with Andersen's uniform for Specialized Investigation Division to process. I remained at [redacted] with Andersen as he was taken for x-rays and CT scans until his family arrived. Once Andersen's family arrived at the hospital, I left [redacted] at about 1900 hours.

AUDIO:

I was unable to obtain any audio recordings of this incident. As I was driving code 3 to the scene, I reached down to activate my recorder. However, after everything was controlled and I was a [redacted] I realized my belt recorder never recorded. Therefore, I do not have any audio or video recording of my involvement.

ASSIGNMENT / ARRIVAL:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, I was assigned to work a retail theft, crime suppression operation in the city of Victorville. The operation consisted of myself as the operation supervisor, and, from the Hesperia station, Sergeant Shane Andersen, Deputy Isaac Sanchez, and Sheriff's Service Specialist (SSS) [redacted] and from the Big Bear station, Deputy Abigail Allen. The operation began at 1200 hours and was scheduled to conclude at 2200 hours. All personnel assigned to the operation were in single-man police vehicles. The operation was focused at the Mall of Victor Valley and surrounding retail shopping locations in the area. I wore a sheriff's uniform and drove an unmarked patrol vehicle.

At approximately 1346 hours, sheriff's dispatch aired a call of a "man with a gun" at the Arco AM/PM gas station 13660 Bear Valley Road, Victorville. Andersen asked for the call and responded to the location. I assigned myself to assist Andersen and drove south on Amargosa Road, in front of the mall. While I was stopped in heavy traffic, Andersen reported "shots fired" over the radio. I immediately activated my emergency lights and siren and drove "Code 3" to the location. I arrived on scene at approximately 1351 hours.

EPUTY OBSERVATIONS:

I arrived on the east side of the Arco, entering the driveway from Amethyst Road. I exited my patrol vehicle and saw Andersen and the suspect, later identified as Jorge Cardenas, on the ground immediately outside the Arco store doors. I saw Sanchez attempting to handcuff Cardenas. I approached Sanchez and asked if he needed help handcuffing Cardenas. Cardenas did not make any sounds or move, did not appear to be breathing, and did not show any signs of life.

Sanchez handed me a black, simi-automatic handgun with a transparent/gray colored high-capacity magazine inserted in the magazine well. Sanchez told me it was Cardenas' weapon and asked me to secure it. I turned around to assess Andersen and his injuries. I set Cardenes' handgun on the ground and placed my right foot on top of it to secure it. I noticed a group of people approaching us and ordered them to stay away.

I turned to Andersen who still had his handgun drawn and pointed at Cardenas. I told Andersen to holster his weapon and he did. I knelt next to Andersen and asked him where he was hit. Andersen said both of his legs were hit and he believed he was struck on the lower left side.

MEDICAL AID:

I checked Andersen for gunshot wounds. I noticed one gunshot wound on his upper right thigh and one on his lower left leg. As additional deputies arrived, I told them to address the injuries to Andersen's legs. Deputies Jonathan Phung and Raymond Syphax each applied a tourniquet to Andersen's legs. I removed Andersen's duty belt, uniform shirt and bullet proof vest and checked his

Assignment / Arrival:

On Friday, December 1, 2023, I was assigned to work as the School Resource Officer at Silverado High School. I wore my approved San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department Class A uniform and drove a marked Sheriff's patrol vehicle. At about 1351 hours, I was dispatched to assist Sergeant S. Anderson at a call for service reference a reported man with a gun, located at 13660 Bear Valley Road. At about 1354 hours, I arrived on scene.

Deputy Actions / Observations:

At about 1354 hours, I arrived on scene and parked my patrol unit on the northwest corner at the intersection of Bear Valley Road and Amethyst Road. I ran towards the entrance of the AM-PM gas station, located at 13660 Bear Valley Road. I contacted Deputy J. Portillo by the scene and he advised me to have additional deputies meet the airships at the landing zone near Liberty Elementary. I ran back towards Bear Valley Road, and advised the arriving deputies to drive towards the designated landing zone.

Next, I grabbed the yellow Sheriff's caution tape from the trunk of my patrol unit, began to set up a perimeter and secure the crime scene. Once the perimeter was secured, I used my mobile data computer (MDC) and conducted license plate inquiries on all the vehicles on scene at the time of my contact. The suspect's vehicle was a gray Nissan sedan which bore California license plate [redacted]. A records check on the license plate mounted on the vehicle returned with information it belonged to a Chevy and not a Nissan. The vehicle was cold plated with a different license plate than the actual license plate that belonged to the vehicle. I conducted a records check on the vehicle's identification number (VIN), confirmed the vehicle was a Nissan and belonged to a Jorge Cardenas.

Body Worn Camera(BWC):

The contact was captured on my department issued Axon body worn camera and the video was uploaded to the Sheriff's evidence database system.

WITNESS INTERVIEW: Doctor [redacted]

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1615 hours, I interviewed Doctor [redacted] in a hallway in the Emergency Room (ER) at [redacted] located at [redacted] in [redacted] I used my department-issued audio recorder to record the interview. The audio recording was later placed into the case file. The following is a summary of my recorded interview with [redacted]

Prior to the interview, I explained to [redacted] I desired to obtain a voluntary statement from her. [redacted] understood and agreed to provide a voluntary statement.

[redacted] was a medical doctor (MD) employed by [redacted] for approximately [redacted] [redacted] was assigned to work in the ER at [redacted] [redacted] worked Monday through Friday, from 0630 hours to 1830 hours.

On Friday, December 1, 2023, sometime in the afternoon, [redacted] was in the ER and was advised of a "John Doe" patient, later identified as Sergeant Shane Andersen, was transported to the ER as Level A trauma. Andersen was brought in by airship. [redacted] described Level A trauma was the highest level of trauma due to Andersen having a tourniquet applied to his leg and was hypotensive, which meant low blood pressure. [redacted] was informed Andersen suffered multiple gunshot wounds to his lower extremities.

[redacted] conducted a head-to-toe assessment on Andersen and located several puncture wounds to Andersen's lower extremities. Andersen's blood pressure was stable, and a tourniquet was applied to his right thigh, which stopped bleeding and an additional tourniquet was applied to his left thigh. [redacted] noticed three puncture wounds to Andersen's left leg, which she was told were related to gunshots. Andersen's left medial thigh had a palpable metallic object, possibly a fired bullet, under the skin. Andersen's right leg had two puncture wounds to the upper thigh and a puncture wound to the right heel. [redacted] was hesitant to call the puncture wounds gunshot wounds and referred to them as puncture wounds.

[redacted] removed the tourniquets from Andersen's upper right medial thigh and left lateral thigh, and noticed the right medial thigh wound actively bled [redacted] believed Andersen sustained a possibly venous or arterial injury and packed the puncture wound with gauze dressing, which stopped the bleeding once the tourniquet was removed. The left lateral thigh was also examined and it did not actively bleed.

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1542 hours, I interviewed Registered Nurse (RN) [redacted] in Resuscitation Room 4 in the Emergency Room (ER) at [redacted], located at [redacted] in [redacted]. I used my department-issued audio recorder to record the interview. The audio recording was later placed into the case file. The following is a summary of my recorded interview with [redacted]

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1447 hours, [redacted] worked in the ER at [redacted] when he was notified via radio, Sergeant Shane Andersen being transported to [redacted] by airship with multiple gunshot wounds to his lower extremities.

[redacted] primary duty was to document and chart procedures administered by the physicians who provided medical care to Andersen. According to [redacted], Doctor [redacted] was the primary doctor who provided medical care to Andersen. Andersen arrived with tourniquets applied to both his left and right thigh. The tourniquets were applied approximately 55 minutes before Andersen arrived at [redacted].

While Andersen was treated, [redacted] documented the injuries [redacted] observed. According to [redacted], Andersen suffered a puncture wound to the left lateral leg with an abrasion to the lower left quadrant, a puncture wound to the left lateral shin, an abrasion to the left exterior forearm, a puncture wound to the right medial thigh, a puncture wound on right lateral side, and a right planter heel puncture wound. MEDICAL INTERVIEW: Air Rescue Registered Nurse (RN) [redacted]

On Tuesday, December 12, 2023, at approximately 0835 hours, San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBCSD) Detective Nick Paslak and I interviewed SBCSD Registered Nurse (RN) [redacted]. [redacted] was in San Diego but agreed to be voluntarily interviewed over the phone regarding this investigation. I recorded the interview with my digital recorder. The recording was later placed into evidence. The following is a summary of [redacted] interview.

[redacted] was an RN since [redacted] and a volunteer for SBCSD since [redacted]. On Friday, December 1, 2023, [redacted] was assigned to the SBCSD Emergency Operations Division as an RN. [redacted] scheduled shift was from 0800 hours to 1800 hours. [redacted] was assigned to work with [redacted] (Paramedic), Corporal [redacted] (Pilot), and Deputy Tommy Dickey (Crew Chief).

On Friday, December 1, 2023, at approximately 1400 hours, [redacted] was inside of the north maintenance hangar at the SBCSD Aviation Hangar at 199 Hangar Way, in San Bernardino. [redacted] had a trainee with her and conducted a tour of the facility. [redacted] noticed multiple people ran toward their helicopter and said a deputy, later identified by investigators as Sergeant Shane Andersen, was shot. [redacted] ran to the helicopter which was staged outside on the launching pad.

[redacted] estimated it took approximately 15 minutes for AR306 to leave the hangar and arrive at the landing zone, at Liberty Park, in Victorville. While in flight, [redacted] learned Andersen sustained multiple gunshot wounds to his legs.

AR306 landed and [redacted] noticed the California Highway Patrol (CHP) helicopter (H80) and Victorville City Fire Department (VCFD) personnel were already on scene at Liberty Park. VCFD and CHP personnel unloaded Andersen from an American Medical Response (AMR) ambulance. [redacted] contacted an unknown CHP paramedic and received basic patient information and learned what medical treatment was already provided to Andersen. [redacted] observed two tourniquets which were on each of Andersen's legs. The tourniquet on his left leg was just above his knee. The tourniquet on his right leg was near his groin area. Andersen's right leg was swollen, bigger than his left, and it had a purple color to it. [redacted] could not visibly see any injuries because they were wrapped with pressure dressings.

[redacted] learned Andersen had two 18-gauge intravenous (IV's) in the inside of his right and left elbows and was given 500 milligrams of normal [redacted], one gram of [redacted]), and 30 milligrams of [redacted]. Andersen was transferred from a gurney onto a Stokes litter, which was a metal basket with a back board inside of it, and loaded into the helicopter AR306.

Once [redacted] contacted Andersen, she conducted a head-to-toe assessment [redacted] found no major bleeding. Andersen was able to talk, breathe, and respond to her questions appropriately. [redacted] attached Andersen to a cardiac monitor and took his blood pressure. MEDICAL INTERVIEW: Air Recue Paramedic Daniel Fisher

On Tuesday, December 12, 2023, at approximately 0913 hours, San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department (SBCSD) Detective Justin Applegate and I interviewed SBCSD Reserve Deputy Daniel Fisher at 655 E. Third Street, in San Bernardino. Fisher agreed to be voluntarily interviewed regarding this investigation. I recorded the interview with my digital recorder. The recording was later placed into evidence. The following is a summary of Fisher's interview.

Fisher was a SBCSD level 2 reserve deputy since 2021, and a SBCSD volunteer since 2018. Fisher attended paramedic school in [redacted] and was employed as a paramedic with American Medical Response (AMR) since [redacted] On Friday, December 1, 2023, Fisher was assigned to the SBCSD Emergency Operations Division as an air medic. Fisher's scheduled shift was from 0800 hours to 1800 hours. Fisher was assigned to work with Registered Nurse [redacted] Corporal Ryan Peppler (Pilot), and Deputy Tommy Dickey (Crew Chief).

On Friday, December 1, 2023, Fisher was inside of the north maintenance hangar at the SBCSD Aviation Hangar at 199 Hangar Way, in San Bernardino. At approximately 1345 hours, SBCSD Captain James Mahan told Fisher a deputy, later identified by investigators as Sergeant Shane Andersen, was shot in Victorville. Fisher went to the south hangar where the helicopter, Air Rescue 306 (AR306), was staged. Fisher told [redacted] about the shooting and prepared to respond to the incident location. Fisher monitored the fire department's dispatch radio channel but did not hear anything related to the shooting.

Fisher estimated it took approximately 10 minutes to launch AR306 from the hangar. While in flight, Fisher learned Andersen sustained injuries to his legs and his vital signs were stable. Fisher also learned the California Highway Patrol (CHP) helicopter (H80) cancelled Mercy Air's response. It took approximately 15 minutes for AR306 to arrive at the landing zone, which was established at Liberty Park, in Victorville.

AR306 arrived at Liberty Park and landed on a baseball field. Fisher exited the helicopter and made contact with an unknown medic from the Victorville City Fire Department (VCFD). Fisher obtained basic patient information and learned what medical treatment was already provided to Andersen. Andersen had tourniquets on his upper right leg and his upper left leg and pressure dressings on both legs. There were pressure dressings on Andersen's right thigh, right lower leg, left thigh and left lower leg. Andersen had two 18-gauge intravenous (IV's) in the inside of his right and left elbows and was given [redacted]

Andersen was transferred from a gurney onto a Stokes litter, which was a metal basket with a back board inside of it, and loaded into the helicopter. Andersen was coherent, conscious, and stated his pain level was at a three. [redacted] placed Andersen on a monitor and provided Andersen with an additional 500 milliliters of [redacted]. During the flight to [redacted], Fisher monitored Andersen's vital signs. Due to the pressure dressings and tourniquets, Fisher did not observe Andersen actively bleed from his wounds.

During transport, Andersen could wiggle the toes on his left foot and still had a pulse in the left foot. Due to the tourniquet on his right leg, Andersen's right leg was swollen with no pulse and no capillary refill. Andersen also had no feeling in his right leg. Upon their arrival at [redacted], AR306 was met by hospital personnel. Andersen was transferred to the care of [redacted]. After hospital personnel began to conduct a trauma assessment, Fisher overheard someone state there was a gunshot wound to Andersen's right foot.

Fisher was unable to provide any additional information, and I concluded my interview with Fisher.

MEDICAL INTERVIEW: Firefighter Captain [redacted]

On Thursday, May 23, 2024, at approximately 0928 hours, I interviewed Firefighter Captain [redacted] over the telephone. [redacted] spoke to me voluntarily. I recorded the interview with my department-issued digital recorder. The recording was later placed into evidence. The following is a summary of [redacted] interview.

[redacted] was a Firefighter Captain for the Victorville City Fire Department (VCFD) and assigned to Fire Station 315. On Friday, December 1, 2023, [redacted] started his shift at 0800 hours, and was assigned to Brush Engine (BE) 314. [redacted] worked with Firefighter Paramedic [redacted] and Firefighter Engineer Paramedic [redacted].

At approximately 1353 hours, [redacted] was notified over the radio of a shots fired call with a subject down and a deputy involved. [redacted] could not remember other details given over the radio. [redacted] responded to the incident location of AM/PM, at 13660 Bear Valley Road, in Victorville, from Fire Station 315. [redacted] engine responded "Code 3" with lights and sirens activated and estimated it took them seven minutes to arrive.

Once at the scene, [redacted] observed a deputy down near the glass at the entryway of AM/PM. Multiple deputies, American Medical Response (AMR) personnel, and other emergency medical personnel treated the deputy on the ground. Since he believed there were adequate resources with the deputy, [redacted] and his team checked the status of the suspect, later identified as Jorge Cardenas. [redacted] did not remember how Cardenas' body was initially oriented when he arrived.

When [redacted] was able to observe Cardenas' chest, he saw approximately six holes, and an injury to his right shoulder. [redacted] believed the holes to be consistent with gunshot wounds (GSW). Cardenas was not breathing or moving and appeared deceased. Cardenas's body was attached to a cardiac monitor which showed his heart had no rhythm where cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) could be performed. No other medical evaluations or treatments were performed on Cardenas. Cardenas pronounced deceased at 1400 hours. Cardenas was not transported to the hospital.

[redacted] had no additional contacts or information, and I ended the interview with him.

The cartridges marked "WIN 9mm LUGER+P" are consistent in weight and appearance with 9mm Luger +P caliber Winchester Ranger ammunition with a 124 grain jacketed hollow point bullet.

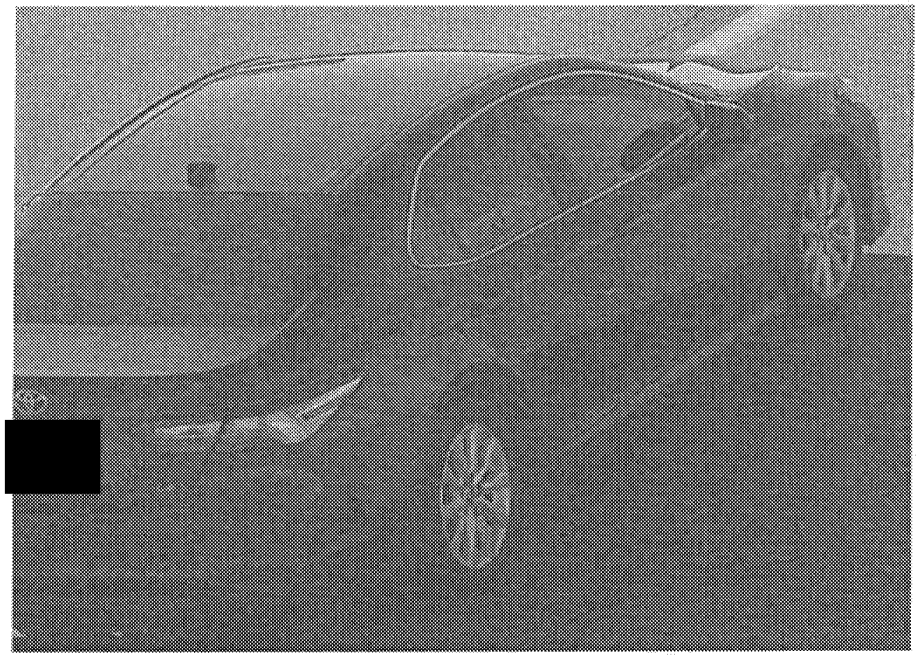
EXHIBIT-1

◆ LOCATION DESCRIPTION ◆

YOU ARE THEREFORE COMMANDED TO SEARCH:

2020 Red Toyota Camera, Idaho License Plate [redacted]. VIN: [redacted]. Vehicle is registered to [redacted] out of Idaho Falls, Idaho.



◆ STATEMENT OF PROBABLE CAUSE ◆

On Friday, December 1, 2023, Deputies responded to the report of a man with a gun at AM/PM convenience store, 13660 Bear Valley Road in Victorville. The first deputy on scene came immediately took gun fire and a lethal force encounter occurred. Multiple rounds were fired. The deputy was struck multiple times. During the exchange of gunfire, a vehicle, 2020 Red Toyota Camera, Idaho License Plate (8BDE48U), was struck by at least one bullet. A search of the vehicle is being requested to collect the evidence contained within the vehicle.

I am requesting this search warrant be sealed to protect the integrity of the investigation.

A search of the vehicle will allow investigators recover evidence to help identify the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

Night service is requested as this is an ongoing Homicide investigation where collection of evidence can be time consuming. If the evidence is not collected from the vehicle at this time, it will hinder the investigation. A search and collection of the evidence will allow investigators to release the vehicle to the owner in a timely manner.

◆ STATUTORY GROUNDS ◆

All of the above information contained in this affidavit for the search warrant gives your affiant probable cause to believe that evidence of a public offense having been committed; to wit: PC664/187, Attempted Homicide occurred, and that evidence of that crime will be located at:

2020 Red Toyota Camera, Idaho License Plate [redacted], VIN: [redacted] Vehicle is registered to [redacted] out of [redacted]

And this complainant prays that a search warrant may be issued to search for the same, and that the same may be brought before a magistrate and disposed of according to law.

ELECTRONIC STORAGE DEVICE EXPERTISE

Based on my personal experience with electronic storage devices and storage media I have the opinion that electronic storage devices such as: wireless/cellular telephones, cordless telephones, pagers, digital cameras, video recorders, audio recorders, computer hardware, fax machines, personal data assistants, software, documentation, passwords, and data security devices may be important to a criminal investigation in two distinct and important respects: The objects themselves may be instrumentalities, fruits, or evidence of crime, and/or; The objects may have been used to collect and store information about crimes in the form of electronic data.

Both state and federal procedures permit the government to search and seize electronic storage devices, software, documentation, passwords and data security devices which are: Instrumentalities, fruits, or evidence of the crime; and/or Storage devices for information about crime.

ELECTRONIC STORAGE DEVICES & HARDWARE

Electronic storage devices consist of all equipment which can collect, analyze, create, display, convert, store, conceal, or transmit electronic, magnetic, optical, or similar transmission, reception, collection and storage of data.

Electronic storage device includes (but is not limited to) any wireless/cellular telephone, cordless telephone, pager, fax machine, digital camera, audio recorder, video recorder and any data-processing device e.g. central processing units, memory typewriters, self- contained "laptop", "notebook", "mini-notebook", or "personal data assistant" computers.

Internal and external storage devices e.g. fixed disks (hard drives), memory cards, floppy disk, LS-120, zip drive, jazz drive, Orb drive, CD drive, DVD drive, diskettes, tape drives, optical storage devices, transistor-like binary devices, and other memory storage devices including the storage media used in the devices.

Peripheral input/output device e.g. as keyboards, printers, scanners, plotters, video display monitors, optical readers.

Related communication devices e.g. modems, cables and connections, recording equipment, RAM or ROM units, acoustic couplers, automatic dialers, speed dialers, programmable telephone dialing or signaling devices, and electronic tone-generating devices. Any device, mechanism, or parts that can be used to restrict access to electronic storage devices e.g. physical keys and locks bio metric readers, retinal scanners, facial recognition, signature verification, smart card or voice authentication.

Software

Computer/Equipment software (digital information) can be interpreted by electronic storage device equipment, computers and any of its related components to direct the way they work. Software is stored in electronic, magnetic, optical or other digital form. It commonly includes programs to run operating systems, applications (like word-processing, graphics, or spreadsheet programs), utilities, compilers, interpreters, and communication programs.

Documentation

Electronic storage device documentation consists of written, recorded, printed, or electronically stored material that explains or illustrates how to configure or use electronic storage device hardware, software, or other related items.

Passwords and Data Security Devices

Electronic storage device passwords and other data security devices are designed to restrict access to or hide software, documentation, or data. Data security devices may consist of hardware, software, or other programming code.

A password (a string of alphanumeric characters) usually operates as a sort of digital key to "unlock" particular data security devices.

Data security hardware may include encryption devices, chips, dongles, biometric readers, retina scanners, facial recognition systems, voice authentication systems, hand writing authentication systems and circuit boards.

Data security software or digital code may include programming code that creates "test" keys or "hot" keys, which perform certain pre-set security functions when touched. Data security software or code may also encrypt; compress, hide, or "booby-trap" protected data to make it inaccessible or unusable, as well as reverse the process to restore it.

Authority to Duplicate Electronic Media

It is further requested that a forensic technician, sworn or non-sworn, be granted authorization to examine; make duplicate images/copies of the above-mentioned electronic media and to determine if evidence of the offenses enumerated above are contained therein.

Therefore authorization is requested to make images/copies of the requested data. Evidence copies of the items relating to these offenses will be created and retained for further proceedings and made available to the authorities.

Only those items recovered under the Search Warrant and relating to the offenses will be retained. The master copy will be retained in evidence storage for later discovery and trial purposes.

Request for Off-Site Search Authorization

For the following reasons, the execution of this warrant may take a great deal of time and require a secure facility, special equipment, and software:

1) It is unknown what operating system is running the computer(s) that is subject of this warrant and, therefore, it will take time to determine how the operating system permits access to data.

2) The amount of data that may be stored in the hard drives and removable storage devices is enormous, and the number or size of the hard drives and removable storage devices that will have to be searched pursuant to this warrant is not known.

3) The data to be seized may be located anywhere on the hard drives and removable storage devices, including hidden files, program files, and "deleted" files that have not been overwritten.

4) The data may be encrypted, or inaccessible without a password, and may be protected by self-destruct programming, all of which take time to bypass.

5) Because data stored on a computer can be destroyed or altered rather easily, either intentionally or accidentally, the search must be conducted carefully and in a secure environment.

6) To prevent alteration of data and insure the integrity of the search, clones (master copies) of all data storage devices will be made. The clones (master copies) will then be searched and this process will take time and special equipment.

Furthermore, a lengthy on-site search may pose a severe hardship on all people who [live] [work] on the premises. It would also require the presence of law enforcement officers to secure the premises while the search is being conducted, thus depleting law enforcement resources in the community.

It is therefore requested that authorization be given to remove all electronic storage devices and storage media that are found on the premises to an off-site location, with the necessary resources and equipment to conduct the search safely and efficiently. It is further requested that authorization be given to search for and seize all peripheral devices that appear to be reasonably necessary to access data stored in the electronic storage devices and storage media.

WEAPONS / FIREARMS

Weapon consisting essentially of a metal or hard tube from which a missile or projectile is shot by the force of exploding gunpowder or other propellant; such as a musket, rifle, machine gun, pistol, revolver, shotgun and objects which launch self-propelled projectiles.

Firearms, bullets, spent/fired shell casings, jacketed metal or lead components of a bullet, impact bullets, items or walls that a bullet may have penetrated after having been fired.

Containers used to store, transport, protect or maintain firearms.

Ammunition and all components of ammunition including the casings, primers, and items used to hold the ammunition to include a magazine, speed loader, moon clips, bandoliers, and boxes or cases.

Projectiles fired from any of the weapons listed above.

Receipts, holsters, gun cleaning kits or photographs depicting suspects in possession of firearms, should those weapons no longer be present on the premises.

ORDER TO SEAL SEARCH WARRANT AFFIDAVIT

Your affiant requests that this affidavit and all other documents relating to this affidavit be sealed for the following reasons: The warrants sought pursuant to this affidavit relate to an ongoing investigation of felony offenses, and it is expected that additional Search Warrants will be sought relating to this matter. If the information contained in this affidavit and in related documents is made public, it would compromise this investigation and make it very difficult to continue. Your affiant believes that if information contained in this affidavit were made available to any alleged co-conspirators, and/or media outlets, the destruction of potential evidence would occur, thereby hindering this investigation and the future prosecution of offenses hereto alleged.

Robert Oakleaf, Sheriff's Detective
San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department

THE ATTACHED SEARCH WARRANT AFFIDAVIT IS SEALED UNTIL FURTHER ORDER OF THIS COURT.
