TRANSITIONAL ASSISTANCE

What is CalWORKs?

CalWORKs is a Human Services program that provides cash aid and services to eligible needy California families. The program serves all 58 counties in the state and is operated locally by county welfare departments. In San Bernardino County this is known as the Transitional Assistance Department (TAD).

Families that apply and qualify for aid, receive money each month to pay for housing, food and other necessary expenses. Immediate help is available to those who qualify for emergency assistance.

The amount of monthly assistance depends on several factors, including the number of eligible people and any household income.

Who Qualifies?

Generally, services are available to:

- Low-income families, where one or both parents are:
 - Absent
 - Unemployed
 - Disabled
 - Deceased
- Needy caretaker relatives

What are the Requirements?

Families applying for CalWORKs may be asked to provide proof of:

- Income
- Property
- Citizenship and/or immigration status
- Age
- Social Security Number
- Residence in San Bernardino County
- Work or school status
- Other information

How Can I Apply?

You may apply for CalWORKs by:

- Completing an on-line application at BenefitsCal.com.
- Calling (877) 410-8829 to request an application be mailed to you.
 - You may return it by dropping it off at an office, by mail or fax.
- Completing an application at a local office. A list of offices is on the reverse side of this brochure.

Additional programs and benefits available to individuals and families include:

- Employment and training services
- CalFresh
- Homeless assistance
