General Relief

Transitional Assistance

What is General Relief?

General Relief (GR) is a Public Assistance (PA) loan program administered by the San Bernardino County Transitional Assistance Department (TAD). It is designed to provide relief and support for needy adults residing in the county.

GR customers receive cash benefits to assist with basic living needs. Customers may also apply for CalFresh and Medi-Cal to receive further help with food and health care needs.

Who qualifies?

Generally, GR applicants are individuals and their families (if applicable) who are not supported by any of the following:

- Own income
- Friends or relatives
- Other public funds
- State:
 - Hospitals, or
 - Institutions
- Any other sources

Program requirements

The GR program requirements will vary depending on each individual's circumstance and whether a person is able to work. To qualify you must meet one of the following criteria:

- Incapacitated — You have a verified mental or physical incapacity preventing employment.
- Employable — You are able to work, but are currently unemployed.

Note: Persons qualifying for GR as an employable person, are only eligible to 90 days of aid in a 12-month period.

- Socially Unemployable — One of the following applies:
 - You are incapacitated and unable to provide verification, or
 - A circumstance beyond your control temporarily prevents you from finding employment.

GR benefits are a loan and must be repaid to the County.

Eligibility requirements

Applicants must meet the following minimum eligibility requirements:

- Be:
 - A United States citizen/legal permanent resident/other non-citizen authorized to live in the United States
 - Incapacitated, socially unemployable, or employable
- Reside and intend to remain in San Bernardino County
- Apply for and accept any potentially available income
- Meet resource limits

Applicants may be asked to provide proof of:

- Income
- Property
- Social Security Number
- Citizenship/immigration status
- Identity
- Other information
