Job seekers urged to attend 2016 West Valley Job Fair

Job seekers will have an opportunity at an upcoming job fair in the West Valley to meet employers who are ready to hire them.

The West Valley Regional 2016 Job Fair takes place Sept. 21, from 9 a.m. until noon. Hosted by the San Bernardino County Workforce Development Board (WDB), the event will be held at the Ontario Airport's Terminal 1 – "Old Airport."

James Johnson, Business Services Manager for the WDB, urges job seekers to "dress for an interview and bring plenty of resumes." Hundreds are expected to attend.

"This is an exciting time for San Bernardino County. Our economy is growing, businesses are expanding and job opportunities are presenting themselves in greater numbers than ever," said James Ramos, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Tony Myrell, Chairman of the Workforce Development Board, said job fairs such as this are one of several ways the WDB connects businesses with a skilled labor force.

"The work we do supports a strong, vibrant economy by encouraging business growth and creating opportunities for job seekers," Myrell said.

To pre-register for the West Valley Regional Job Fair, visit www.csb-win.org, using Job Order #30297-30299.
